Vick Jeffery Nelson, age 60, joined his Savior on Friday, June 4, 2021. He was born on August 24, 1960, in Beaumont, to Joyce Vick Nelson and Jerry Nelson, Sr.

Vick grew up in South Park and graduated from South Park High School in 1978. He attended Harding University in Arkansas and Lamar University in Beaumont. During his time at Lamar, he met and fell in love with Katha Corley of Spring, Texas. The two married on December 3, 1983. During this time, he worked for his brother and father at Nelson Supply. In 1988, Vick founded Maverick Valve and Fittings, Inc as an engineering and pipe and valve supply company. As the scope of the business grew under his leadership and service, the name was changed to Maverick International, Ltd. to reflect that growth. His brother, Jerry, joined him in 1990, and the two worked alongside one another until Vick's retirement in 2014. Vick served on the board of Beaumont Christian Schools/Christian Heritage Academy from 1993 to its closure in 2000. In the fall of 2000, Vick began his non-profit Stones Crying Out. Through this ministry, Vick furthered his true purpose of blessing others.

Vick took great joy in: his wife, children, son-in-law, and grandchildren, Christmas, long baths, the beach, cats, coffee with a lot of cream, giving abundantly to people, cats, Disneyland, reading the Wallstreet Journal, Amazon.com, cats, every genre of music except for rap, the Houston Astros, cats, worshipping the Lord to music, and the beautiful city of Beaumont. But, honestly, he loved his family and cats.

Vick is survived by, his wife of 37 years, Katha Nelson; daughter, Maggie Neal and her husband, David; daughter, Emma Nelson; and son, Elijah Nelson; grandchildren, Journey, Lucy, and August Neal; mother, Joyce Nelson; father, Jerry Nelson, Sr.; mother-in-law, Katherine McGrew; brother, Jerry Nelson, Jr. (Beverly and their children, Candace and Bubba); sister, Sylvia Andel (Vince and their sons, Noah and Eli); and many loving great-nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins (who were really his friends), and friends (who were really his family).

He is preceded in death by his grandmother, Ocie May Vick; his sister-in-law, Paula Corley; and his dear friend, Bob Buford.

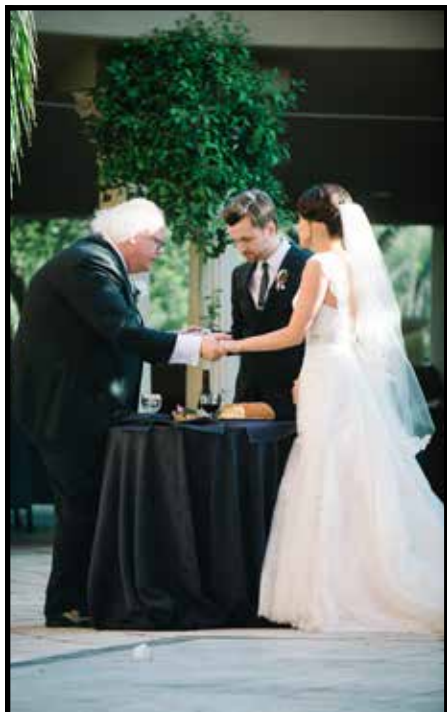

Vick honored his Father, loved his Jesus, and pursued his Holy Spirit.
