The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Grace Goff Palmer of Kerrville, Texas, died Monday, July 26th, 2021. She was born in Houston, Texas on October 4th, 1927 to her predeceased parents, Luther Jackson Wharton and Vera Roberts Wharton. Her brother, Bobby Jack Wharton and his wife Dorothy also preceded her in death.

She moved to Beaumont, Texas in 1936 and attended South Park Schools and Lamar College.

She married George E. Goff on October 9th, 1945. To this union a daughter, Pamela Kaye Goff, was born. Pamela married David W. Chance on March 4th, 1978. They had two sons, Justin and Cody, who brought much joy and happiness to Grace. Grace's husband, George, died January 22nd, 1973.

Grace worked at Mobiloil Federal Credit Union for 30 years and served in many capacities. She retired in 1990 while serving as a Branch Manager.

On November 21st, 1979, Grace united in marriage with Gene Palmer. They lived in Beaumont until 1996 when they moved to Lumberton where they resided until Gene's death in 2015. In 2016, Grace moved to Kerrville, Texas and lived with her daughter Pam and David.

She was a devoted and lifelong member of the Beaumont Seventh-Day Adventist Church during which time she served as teacher, treasurer and enjoyed missionary trips. She and her husband Gene went on several missionary trips to Mexico to build churches. Grace and Gene were in their early 70's when they made these trips in rather primitive conditions but never complained once, always praising the trips as such a great blessing! Into their 80's they also delivered Meals on Wheels for years to seniors in the local community.

Mike Orcutt, one of the Beaumont SDA members, said this about Grace:

“Grace was everyone’s Mom, or Grandmother. The only thing that surpassed her love for her family was her love for Jesus. She was a very loving and giving person. Always smiling, always with a kind word for someone. I never ever heard her say an unkind word about anyone. She didn’t spread gossip, only love for Jesus and others. While we grieve, we know the next Person that Grace will see is her beloved Saviour. The Bible says in Matthew chapter 5, Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.” We can claim that promise today, as God wraps His everlasting arms of love around us in our sorrow.

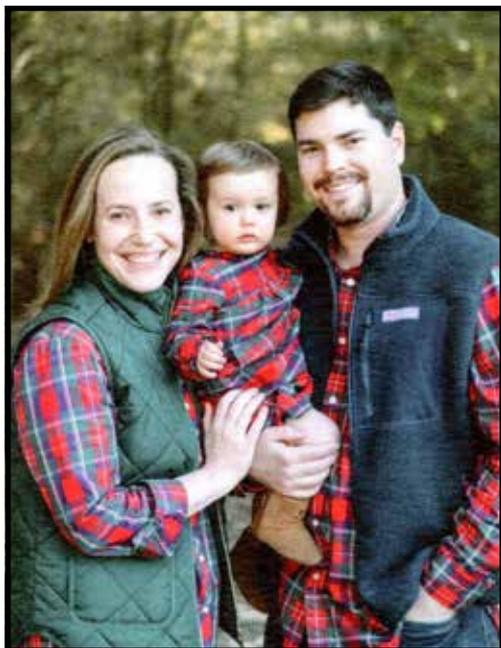

Survivors include her daughter, Pam and son-in-law, David Chance; grandson, Justin Chance and fiancé Isabel Camarillo, and sons Isaiah and Jeremiah Herrera; grandson, Cody Chance and wife Haley, and daughter Thea Grace, who was Grace’s first great-grandchild and namesake; Dalton Wharton, Grace’s nephew who lives with his wife Connie in Weatherford, and their daughters, Wendy Wharton of Weatherford and Stephannie and her husband Gene Vilaros of Fort Worth.
