Helen Marie Patterson, 92, of Silsbee, died Wednesday, August 11, 2021, at Avalon Place, Kirbyville. She was born on May 24, 1929, in Cleveland, to Lela Caples Smith and Claude Smith.

She is survived by her children, Lavern Walters and her husband, Naymon, Sr., of Saratoga; Brenda Morgan and her husband, Bradley, of Buna; and Judy Ruggles and her husband, Johnny, Jr., of Silsbee; grandchildren, Veronica Gannon and her husband, Delton; Naymon Walters, Jr. and his wife, Delanie; Tammy Castilaw and her husband, Kevin; and Jennifer Walters, all of Saratoga; Jody Vandver and his wife, Catherine and Jeffrey Vandver, all of Kountze; Kerby Waghorn and her husband, Michael and David Castle and his wife, Janna, all of Buna; Trevor Morgan and his wife, Hope and Tara Johnson and her husband, Greg, all of Evadale; and Emily Smith and her husband, Ty, of Kountze; fourteen great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren. Helen is preceded in death by her parents; husbands, Alton Vandver and Claude Patterson; son, James Vandver; and great-granddaughter, Emlynn Johnson.

Proverbs 31:10-28

“Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants’ ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.”
