Closing Prayer

Charles “Charlie” Tee Sistrunk, 60, passed away Thursday, June 10, 2021 in his family home in Beaumont, TX. Charlie, a native of Beaumont, was born on October 26, 1960 to Malcolm Sistrunk, Sr. and Mary Lou Babin Sistrunk at Baptist Hospital.

Charlie graduated from French High School in 1979. After high school, he started his career at the family business, Babin Machine Works Inc., as a third generation machinist. In time, with all his experience, he became the head of the Drill Press department.

Charlie channeled his creativity into small projects such as wood working and tinkering with model cars and motorcycles. He had a passion for motorsports, be it motorcycles, jet skis, cars, etc. Growing up, his brother Rod can recall Charlie asking, “well can we make it go faster?” He was the youngest of three brothers, and he would do everything he could to keep up with them. Charlie wasn’t only a motor head, but he loved sporting events. He was always down for going to an Astros game with his family.

Growing up in the family home, Charlie enjoyed visiting Uncle Ray and Aunt Joya next door along with his neighborhood friends, Larry and Reggie French. Every chance he had, he went to Louisiana to spend time with his Uncle TJ on the farm.

Survivors include his son, Casey Sistrunk and wife, Chelsea; brothers, Malcolm “Mac” Sistrunk, Jr., and wife, Tania; Rodney “Rod” Sistrunk; nephew, Ryan Sistrunk and wife, Whitney; niece, Kayla Sistrunk; mother of his son, Pattie Sistrunk; and numerous extended family members.

Charlie was preceded in death by his parents; Mac Sr and Mary Lou; Aunt Joya and Uncle Ray, Uncle TJ and Aunt Christine; sister-in-law Debbie Sistrunk and father-in-law Sidney Caywood.
