Carl Russell Trotman,

99, went to be with the Lord on May 20, 2021. Carl was born on August 17, 1921, in Beaumont, Texas, to James Walter Trotman and Lena Etta Oglesbee Trotman. He was a resident of Beaumont and longtime member of Rosedale Baptist Church. He married Mary Jane Elizabeth “Janie” Hall on October 24, 1942. He retired from Mobil Oil in 1983 after 37 years of service. During retirement, he and Janie enjoyed traveling the United States and camping in RVs. He loved meeting other travelers and developed friendships along the way. Carl was an avid gardener who enjoyed sharing his bounty with family and friends. After his gardening days came to an end when he was in his early 90s, he began cooking for he and Janie. As Janie’s health declined, Carl devotedly cared for her.

He is survived by his son, Russell Trotman and wife, Linda, of Lumberton; daughter, Kathy Callaway and husband, Ronnie, of Beaumont; granddaughters, Keri Gulley of Lumberton and Kelli McKee and husband, Mark, of Beaumont; great-grandchildren, Gracie, Kendal and Rafe Gulley and Zach, Brooklyn and Adelyn McKee. He was preceded in death by his wife of 77 years; his parents; and his sister, Grace Trotman Tarter.
