Blake Anthony Whitaker, 30, of Vidor, died Saturday, May 29, 2021. He was born on November 12, 1990, in Beaumont, to Mary Messina and Bruce Whitaker. He grew up in Vidor, along with his older brother, Matt. Blake graduated Vidor High school in 2009 following graduation he attended Lamar Institute of technology.

As a young child, Blake loved sports; football, baseball, basketball and soccer. He was coached by his dad in the early years. Blake later played high school football, baseball and soccer and received his letterman in Varsity football as a Sophomore. Blake was remembered to be a jokester during practices but when it came to game time he was a selfless teammate and enjoyed the game.

Growing up Blake would enjoy outdoor activities such as camping, hunting and fishing, on those trips, particularly, fishing trips, it was more about eating the snacks and playing with the bait.

Blake was certified as a heavy machinery operator within the industrial field and was placed in several supervisor positions. Blake took pride in his appearance with fashion, as well as showed interest in wood working, 80's music, classic movies, attending concerts, exotic animals and pulling pranks.

Blake can be characterized as a loyal friend, humorous, strong willed, fearless, and one who loved and adored children. Blake will be fondly remembered by his presence, smile, and laughter. We will always carry your memory in our hearts as a son, a brother, a nephew, a grandson, a cousin, a father, an uncle, and a friend.

Survivors include his mother, Mary Messina; father, Bruce Whitaker and his wife, Melissa; brother, Matt Whitaker and wife Emily; nieces, Theia and Aria; sisters, Shelbi and Kiersten Whitaker; stepsister, Ashton Sims and her husband, Thomas; nephew, Otto Sims; aunts, Lee Ann Aldrich and her husband, Paul; Carla Peppers and her husband, Lee; Mike Messina and his wife, Janice; Lisa Martin and her husband, Charlie; Crystal Lenz and her husband, Steve; and Nicole Chandler; paternal grandparents, Bill Whitaker and Phyllis Whitmire and her husband, Robert. numerous cousins and extended family members.

Blake is preceded in death by his son, Ross Anthony Whitaker, maternal grandparents, Carl Messina and his wife, Lee; and his uncle, Jeff Chandler.

“The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.”

Psalm 34:18

A Gift of an Angel

You were sent down from heaven
A gift for me to love
Then the good Lord had to take you from me
Back to heaven above, I know God has his plans
For us to meet again but until then
Know your in my heart and it will never mend
Until I see your angel face again.

In Loving Memory of my Son

*Of all the special gifts in life however great or small
To have you as my son was the greatest gift of all.
A special time, a special face, a special Son
I can't replace. With aching heart, I whisper low
I miss you Son and love you so.*
