GREETING:

Friends, we have gathered here to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the life of Nell Wiggins. We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

CELEBRATION OF FAMILY

PRAYER:

O God, who gave us birth, you are ever more ready to hear that we are to pray.

You know our needs before we ask, and our ignorance in asking.

Give to us now your grace, that as we shrink before the mystery of death, that we may see the light of eternity.

Speak to us once more your solemn message of life and death.

Help us to live as those who are prepared to die.

And when our days here are accomplished, enable us to die as those who go forth to live.

In living and in dying, our life is in you.

Nothing in life or in death will be able to separate us from your great love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen

HOW GREAT THOU ART

PSALM 23:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil.; for thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.

Thou anointest my head with oil. My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Reading from Old Testament: Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
