October 14, 1959 - May 11, 2021

Richard Pierce Wyche passed Tuesday, May 11, 2021, after a brave battle with lung cancer. He was born on October 14, 1959, in Beaumont, to Gloria Inez Caton Wyche and Robert Pierce Wyche, Jr.

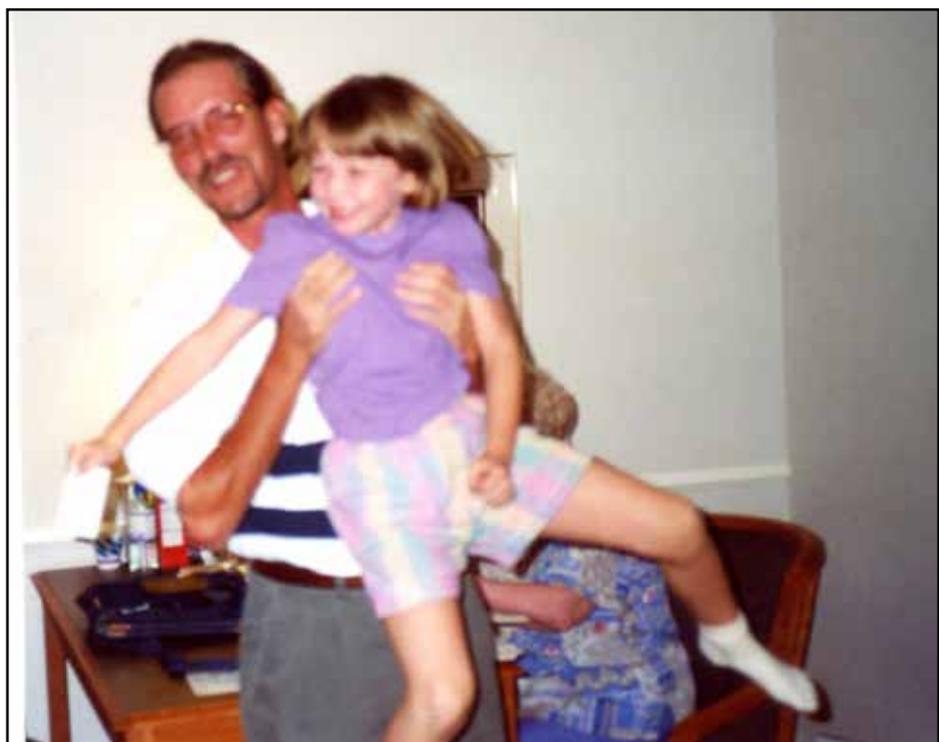

Richard lived in Beaumont until his graduation from Lamar University in 1982. Following graduation, he began a career that allowed him the freedom to pursue his real love in life: the game of golf. He grew up learning to play golf at Tyrrell Park on the now Henry Homberg Municipal Golf Course. Richard would fondly recall the times spent at Tyrell Park and the lasting friendships he made there. Rest assured he is waiting at the 19th hole for everyone to join him.

Richard's quick wit, love of life and endearing smile will be missed, but his memory will be forever cherished by those who loved him.

He is survived by his sister, Anne Wyche Sexton and her husband, Michael S. Purcell, of Missouri City; nephew, William Alan Sexton and his wife, Karolyn Blanchette Sexton; niece, Laura Anne LaGrasta, all of Houston; cousins, Kim Caton Neurohr and William Dean Caton, both of Dallas; and Nancy Ruth Caviness of Duck, North Carolina.

Crossing the Bar

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have cross'd the bar.
