

Jacob Heinlein

April 13, 1993 - October 16, 2021

Jacob Vincent Heinlein passed in peace on October 16, 2021, at the age of 28. He was the son of Gina Vallot Heinlein and V. Eric Heinlein. Jake was born on April 13, 1993, in Beaumont. He was a Beaumont native for most of his life before a brief stint as a Houstonian in his last months.

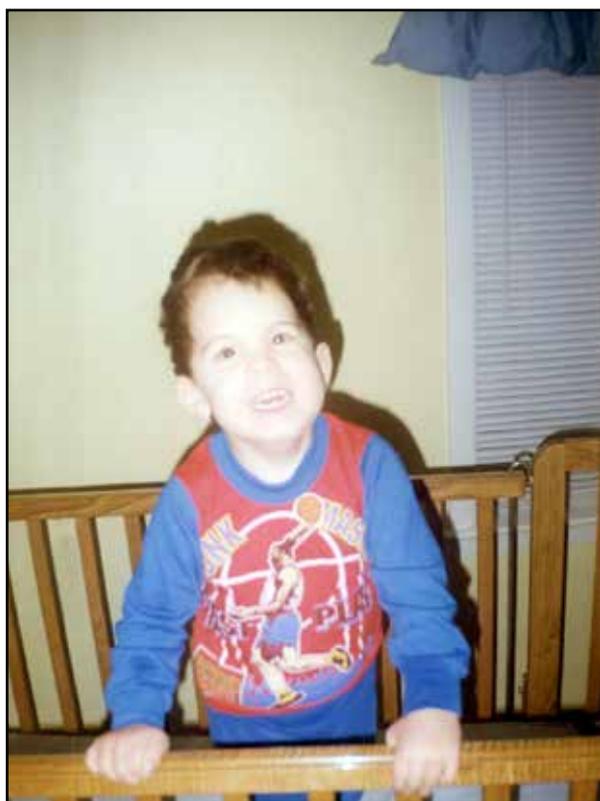

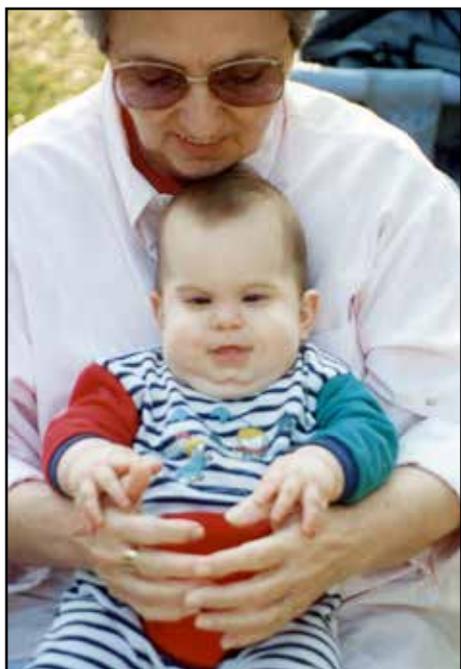

Jacob was special. He was special because those who welcomed him into their world had their lives profoundly changed. Their spirits were revealed just how comprehensive and unconditional the love of God truly is, and their hearts were filled with overwhelming compassion for our neighbors who don't exactly fit the norm. Jake bonded our family even more than it already was. As the youngest in his immediate family and the youngest grandchild, he was naturally bound to be spoiled. He was non-verbal with the exception of ages 4-7 but everyone close to him seemed to know what he wanted and needed most of the time. He attended school in the Special Ed classes and graduated from The Oaks Education Center in 2013. He was blessed with a family that all helped raise him, most especially his sister and brother who took special consideration and sacrifice in loving and caring for him as they too were navigating their own adolescence and young adulthood.

Youngest son to Gina and Eric and little brother to Jessica Foreman and Joshua Heinlein. Further survived by his nephew and niece, Carter and Khloe Foreman; aunts, MaryBeth Woodall; JoAnn Vallot; Susan Vallot; Uncle Joey Vallot and his wife Charlotte; cousins, Tiffany Woodall; Christopher Woodall and his wife, Nicole; Jason Woodall; Lauren LeBlanc and her husband, Scott; Amber Riedmueller and her husband Gerald; and littlest cousins, Bailey Woodall and Rose Riedmueller. He is also one of the youngest members of the extended Eichelberger family based in Maryland and has a string of friends and caretakers who all let him get away with a little too much sometimes.

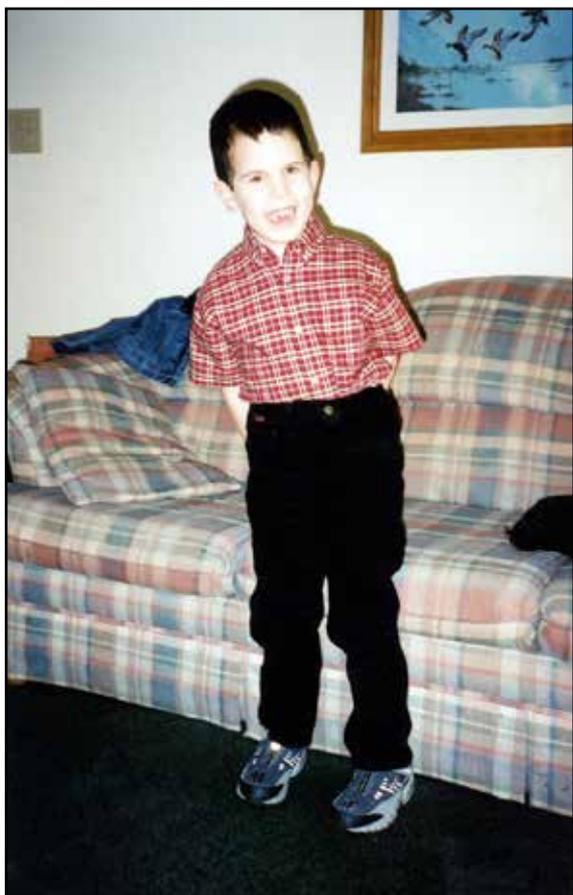

Jacob is preceded in death by both sets of grandparents, Joe and Dolores Vallot and Harvey and Dot Heinlein; and cousins, Rebecca Eichelberger and Donny Eichelberger.
