“Because He Lives”
by Congregation

BECAUSE HE LIVES

God sent His son, they called Him,
Jesus
He came to love, heal and forgive
He lived and died to buy my pardon
An empty grave is there to prove my Savior lives.

Because He lives, I can face
tomorrow
Because He lives, all fear is gone
Because I know He holds the future
And life is worth the living
Just because He lives.

How sweet to hold a newborn baby And feel the pride and the joy he gives
But greater still the calm assurance
This child can face uncertain days
because He Lives.

And then one day, I'll cross that river
I'll fight life's final war with pain
And then, as death gives way to vict'ry
I'll see the lights of glory and I'll know He reigns.

Because He lives, I can face
tomorrow
Because He lives, all fear is gone
Because I know He holds the future
And life is worth the living
Just because He lives

Because he lives
Because he lives

Clyde “Lee” Oleson, Jr., 84, of Nederland, passed away peacefully on Friday, October 15, 2021, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont, after being treated for Alzheimer’s disease. God mercifully took him home and ended that journey. He was born May 10, 1937, in Baytown, to Francis “Thelma” Sammons Oleson and Clyde Lee Oleson, Sr.

Lee attended Baytown schools and graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in 1955. He went on to join the Corp of Cadettes and attend his beloved A & M University. Lee graduated with his bachelor’s degree in chemistry in 1961. He later returned to school at Sam Houston State University where he earned his master’s in chemistry with minors in math and physics in 1966.

In 1961, he started a teaching position in Somerset where he met his wife, Patsy Culp. They were married on May 26, 1961 and celebrated sixty years together this past May.

After earning his master’s degree, he relocated to Nederland to work as a chemist for Unocal Refinery where he retired from in 1995. After he retired, he and Patsy bought an RV and enjoyed many years of traveling.

Lee was a deacon at Central Baptist Church, Port Neches and was also the treasurer for over twenty years. He and Patsy loved their church family and faithfully served the Lord for many years.

Lee loved the outdoors and enjoyed traveling, hunting, and fishing. He especially liked to watch Aggie's football and cherished the time he got to spend with his family.

Survivors include his wife, Patsy Oleson, of Nederland; children, Monica Clausen and husband, Hank; Judy Tippin and husband, Merle; and Clyde Oleson III and wife, Christine; grandchildren, Chris Clausen and wife, Robyn; Jessica Clausen; Hayley Clausen and fiancé, Eric Duke; Meagan Oleson and fiancé, Cyle Hubbard; and Peyton Lee Oleson; and four great-grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Thelma and Clyde Oleson; and sisters, Jane Fitzpatrick and Nelda Oleson.
