Was there ever a man so loved? In case there was wonder, family and friends showed up in droves to answer that question and visit Joshua Kurt Picard during the final days in his fight against esophageal cancer. In the days prior to his death, friends and family arrived, some having traveled many hours, to spend time if only to watch him breathe. The love shown and felt in his room was palpable. As his heart beat its last, Josh ended his seven-month battle surrounded by family on the morning of November 11, 2021.

Joshua began this journey accruing loved ones even before his birth on July 25, 1987. No matter where he lived, he touched the lives of those around him starting with his first friends, Adam, cousin, Matt and his brother, Jacob. Along with his friends from elementary, Josh graduated from Hamshire-Fannett High School and Lamar University where he amassed even more friends.

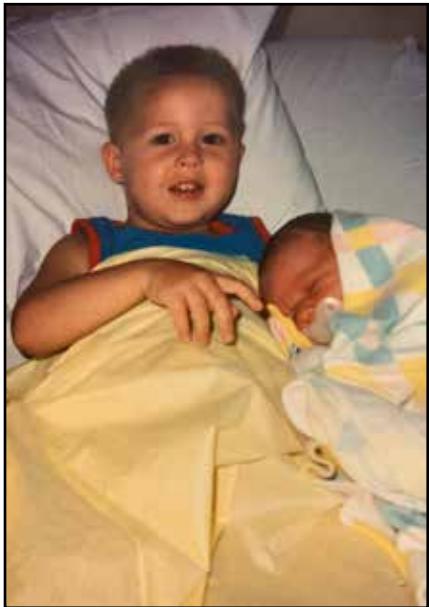

He was passionate about golf, football, LSU, dirt bikes, and history (especially World War II) which increased as he grew older. One of his favorite places to visit with friends and family was the Vicksburg National Military Park in Vicksburg, MS.

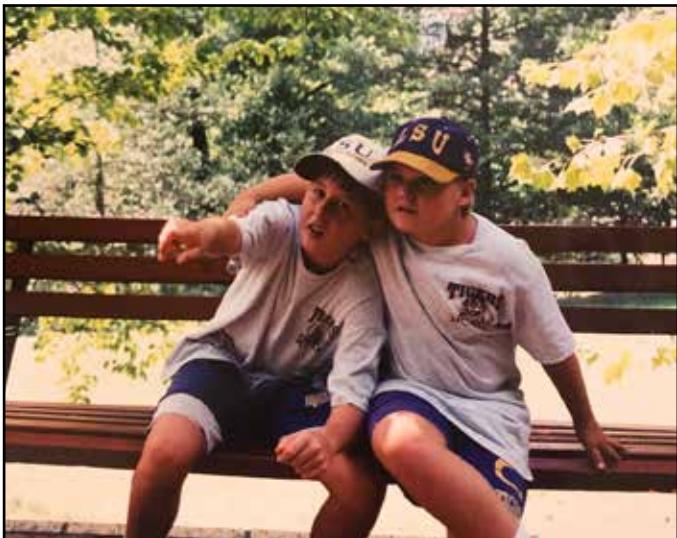

Upon meeting Randi, Josh gained an even larger family to love and who love him whole-heartedly in return. Randi and Josh enjoyed a wonderful honeymoon trip to Paris, and Josh was able to visit Normandy Beach. This trip remained a favorite of Josh's. Josh and Randi have two amazing sons, Jackson and Brooks. They made his life and family complete.

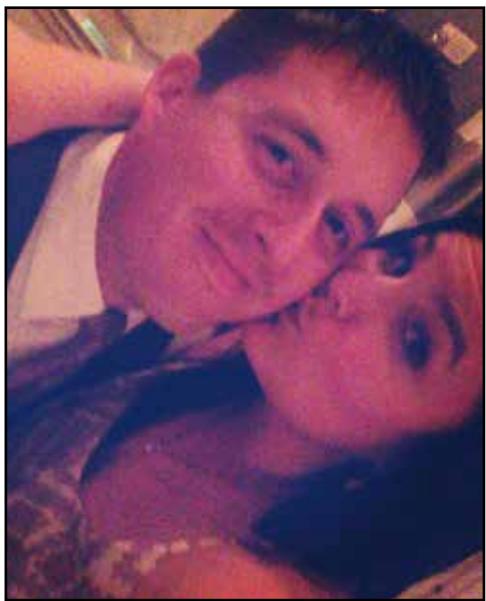

Joshua is survived by his wife, Randi Leigh-Ann Paine and their sons, Jackson and Brooks; his father, Kurt Picard; mother, Lisa Hawsey; siblings, Jacob Picard and wife, Brittany, Nick Bethea, and Olivia Belt; nephews, Landen, Alex, and Baylor; and grandparents, Jim and Linda Hawsey; along with a multitude of other family and friends.

Joshua was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Patrick and Mary Rose Picard and his classmate, Eric Neal.

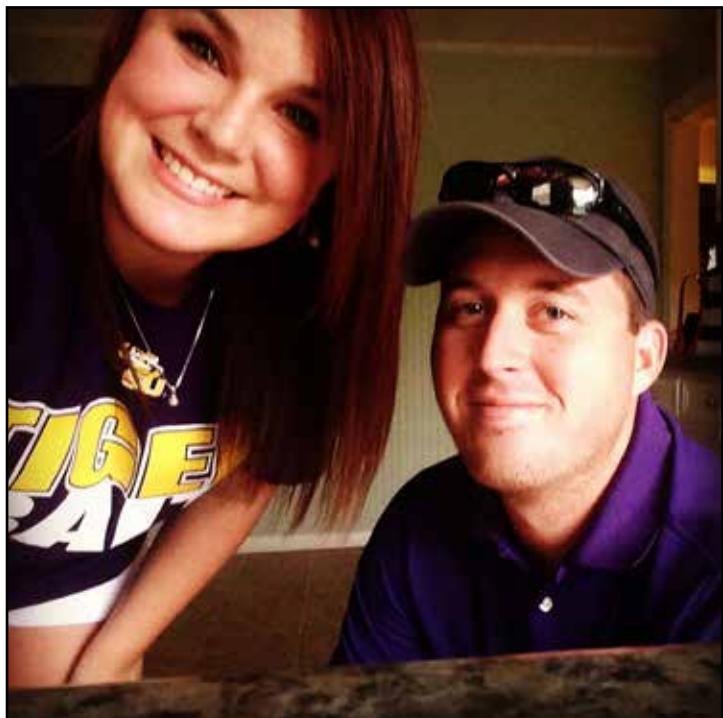

Joshua Kurt Picard was a man of honor, faith, and love. All who knew him, loved him. Please know, he loved you in return and felt your love to the end.
