It Is Well with My Soul

To God Be the Glory

To God be the glory, great things He hath done;
So loved He the world that He gave us His Son,
Who yielded His life an atonement for sin,
And opened the life gate that all may go in.

*Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the earth hear His voice!
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father, through Jesus the Son,
And give Him the glory, great things He hath done.*

O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
To every believer the promise of God;
The vilest offender who truly believes,
That moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

*Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the earth hear His voice!
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father, through Jesus the Son,
And give Him the glory, great things He hath done.*

Great things He hath taught us, great things He hath done,
And great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son;
But purer, and higher, and greater will be
Our wonder, our rapture, when Jesus we see.

*Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the earth hear His voice!
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father, through Jesus the Son,
And give Him the glory, great things He hath done.*

He Keeps Me Singing

There's within my heart a melody;
Jesus whispers sweet and low,
“Fear not, I am with you, peace,
be still,”
in all of life's ebb and flow.

*Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
sweetest name I know,
fills my every longing,
keeps me singing as I go.*

All my life was wrecked by sin
and strife,
discord filled my heart with
pain,
Jesus swept across the broken
strings,
stirred the slumbering chords
again.

*Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
sweetest name I know,
fills my every longing,
keeps me singing as I go.*

Though sometimes He leads through waters deep,
trials fall across the way;
though sometimes the path
seems rough and steep,
see His footprints all the way.

*Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
sweetest name I know,
fills my every longing,
keeps me singing as I go.*

Feasting on the riches of His grace,
resting 'neath His sheltering wing,
always looking on His smiling
face,
that is why I shout and sing.

*Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
sweetest name I know,
fills my every longing,
keeps me singing as I go.*

Soon He's coming back to welcome me
far beyond the starry sky;
I shall wing my flight to worlds
unknown,
I shall reign with Him on high.

*Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
sweetest name I know,
fills my every longing,
keeps me singing as I go.*

It Is Well with My Soul

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

*It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

*It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!—
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

*It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

*It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

J.W. Stewart, 95, of Port Neches, passed onto his new heavenly home Tuesday, January 11, 2022, at Baptist Hospital of Southeast Texas, Beaumont. He was born September 7, 1926, in Gainesville, to Sadie and John Stewart. Mr. Stewart was a United States Army veteran.

J.W. was an only child and he grew up in the same family home as his father. He graduated from Gainesville High School in 1943. After graduating he moved to College Station and became an Aggie which was a great accomplishment for him and his family. J.W. proudly wore his Aggie ring daily. He was in the class of '47 although due to his service in the United States Army he returned and graduated with class of '49.

J.W. was a chemical engineer major and was also an officer in the Corp of Cadets at Texas A&M. He met Raenell Hudspeth, his future wife, at the Gainesville hospital where she worked. They married February 17, 1951, in Era and immediately moved to Port Neches. He later became a graduate of the Executive Development Program at Cornell University Graduate School of Business.

J.W. began working at Texas US Rubber Company which later became Ameripol Synpol. He was the production superintendent and an assistant plant manager for many years until his retirement. Upon retirement, J.W. and Raenell enjoyed traveling, playing golf, and dedicating their time and service at First Baptist Church, Port Neches.

He is survived by his daughter, Paula Pratt and husband, Sam, of Fannett; grandchildren, Allison Pratt, of Fannett and Megan South and husband, Brandon, of Midland; great-grandchildren, Jude and Clara South; nephew, Bill Hudspeth and wife, Karen, of Gainesville; and nieces, Debbie Powell, of San Antonio and Kim Martin and husband, Charles, of Frisco.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Sadie and John Stewart and wife of sixty-one years, Raenell Stewart.
