She also outfitted herself, daughter, grandchildren, and a few friends as well in beautiful clothing. In later years, she became a voracious reader, always ready for a new "Danielle Steele" novel.

Survivors include her daughter, Nita Robichau of Beaumont; grandchildren, Stacey White and her husband, Ryan, of Beaumont; John Robichau and his significant other, Amy Lee, of Port Neches; and James Robichau and his wife, Holly, of Beaumont; great-grandchildren, Anna White, William White, Gage Whitenburg, Mattie Lee, Jaxon Lee, and Gabriel Hopkins; and numerous nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Bertha is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Johnnie DeFatta; son-in-law; Jim Robichau; and six siblings.

The family wishes to thank Beaumont Nursing and Rehabilitation for their warmhearted care, especially during her final weeks and Professional Health Care hospice for their compassionate care.
