Our precious Jimmy Duane Whisenant was born January 16, 2020. He was instantly a part of our family and we wondered how we ever made it without him before he came along. He had the cutest smile you've ever seen, and a twinkle in his eyes like no other. No one can forget those gorgeous ringlets of hair that everyone envied. He wasn't a big talker yet. He would grab his Poppy by the finger and pull him wherever he wanted him to go. And Poppy would always follow to see what he wanted. Jimmy was very smart. If one person didn't open a piece of candy for him, he went around the room until someone did. And if you were lucky enough to get a hug it might not include his arms wrapping around you...he would just kind of lean into you but it was still perfect.

He adored his mommy and lit up when he saw her. He was just as anxious to go back home with her as he was when his Poppy would go to pick him up. He looked up to his Big Brother Taydan. He wanted to do everything just like Taydan did. He wanted to be playing basketball with Taydan at his practice and thought he belonged out there. His special buddy was Jardell Elam. They hit it off instantly and loved each other tremendously. When Lollie coaxed a kiss out of him it was a big loud MUAH. His Lollie loved it when she got to pick him up from school and to watch his face when he saw her at the door. He wasn't very fond of diaper changes, but he usually was more than agreeable to naptime and bedtime. No child has ever been easier to put to bed at night than he was. He loved playing with all his cousins and extended family at large family gatherings. Sometimes the little girl cousins irritated him or I should say he loved to irritate the girl cousins. He had taken swimming lessons already and was scheduled for them this summer. He loved putting his face in the water. He was always a happy baby, always smiling, and he LOVED to dance.

Jimmy was named after his beloved Great Grandmother, Jimmie Linda Whisenant and their love for each other was obvious. If he was asked if he wanted to go see his Papa, Lowell Duane Whisenant (where he got his middle name from), he was running to the door before you finished asking him. His Poppy, Troy Duane Whisenant also shared his middle name. He enjoyed golf cart rides with his grandparents and cousins.

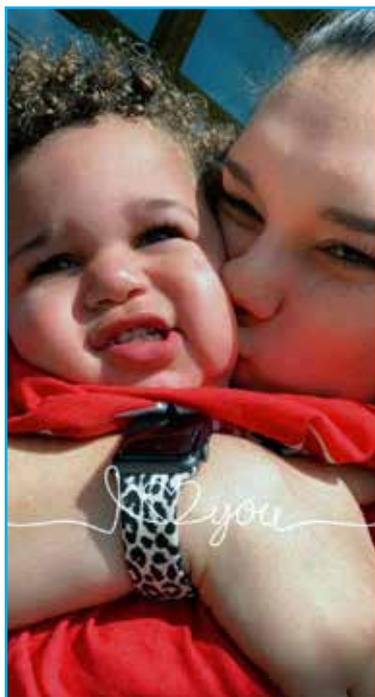

A special thank you to MET Early Head Start in Kountze who provided him a loving home during school hours. He had just started saying "bye" some days to all the teachers there. All of whom loved him and he loved them... as he ran toward the door at the end of the day.

We wish to lift him up in celebration today, and we know how lucky we were to have him for 2 amazing years. Words often seem so small but, our family wants to thank all our friends and extended family for the love and support that has been shown to us during this time.
