Betty Joyce Trahan, 86, of Port Neches, died Sunday, March 6, 2022, at Magnolia Manor, Groves. She was born January 2, 1936, in Lafayette Parrish, Louisiana, to Nezida Roy Trahan and Rene Trahan.

Betty was known to have very high moral values and to be an athlete outdoors and enjoyed camping, traveling, and waterskiing. She was also a fan of Cajun music, dancing, and playing Booray. Above all else, she was always there for her grandchildren.

Survivors include her daughters, Linda Dubose, of Nederland and Diana e'Lamrani, of Houston; granddaughters, Melissa Grogan and husband, Jerome, of Port Neches and Dana David and husband, Steve, of Houston; and great-granddaughter, Olivia David, of Houston.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Nezida and Rene Trahan; husband, Louis Doris Huval; six brothers; three sisters; sons-in-law, Clarke Dubose and Hassan e'Lamrani; grandson, Robin; and great-grandson, Jaryd.
