

Clement D. Mohr

November 27, 1919 - April 18, 2022

Clement Douglas, "C.D." Mohr passed away on April 18, 2022, at the age of 102. He was born in Larchwood, Iowa on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 1919. He grew up with nine brothers and sisters in Howells, Nebraska, eventually attending St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kansas on a music scholarship. He served in the Pacific Theatre during World War II as a midshipman with the U.S. Navy, and graduated from the United States Merchant Marine Academy, Kingspoint, New York in February 1945.

After the war, C.D. spent several years at sea as a merchant sailing officer until coming ashore to wed Mary Joyce Bryant on July 29, 1950. He pursued a career as a shipping agent and moved his growing family to several locations along the Gulf Coast until 1961, when they finally settled in Beaumont, Texas.

C.D. and Joyce proudly raised five children – a daughter and four sons – who all established homes in Texas. Joyce went on to her heavenly home on April 7, 2017, having been married to C.D. for nearly 67 years.

After working a majority of his career in the steamship business, C.D. launched into a number of entrepreneurial ventures until finally retiring in 1987. He moved to Calder Woods Retirement Community in July 2017, and has lived in Beaumont for 61 years. Being a man of boundless energy, he stayed busy writing his autobiography entitled: Facing Death Thirty Nine Times: The Life of Clement D. Mohr.

C.D. became a grandfather for the first time in 1978, and ultimately had nine grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. He treasured each one and proudly displayed their photos wherever he lived.

He is survived by his daughter, Nancy Richardson (Stone); son, Danny Mohr (Rhonda); son, David Mohr (Rebecca); son, Darrell Mohr (Beth); grandchildren, Tommy Richardson (Jen); Matt Mohr (Candis); Cody Mohr (Erin); Meredith Mohr; Kate Pinkston (Michael); Joseph Mohr; Sarah Mohr; Rachel Mohr; Hannah Mohr; and great-grandchildren, Gabriel Richardson, Alexandra Richardson, Joshua Richardson, Kodi

Special thanks are genially extended to his caregivers: Tillie Mae Young, Sylvia Andel, Mike Zumwalt, Latoya Lewis, Megan Mistic, Carolyn, Greta, Marva, Damiana, Brandi, Laramie, Deborah and Ethel and many others.

1 Corinthians 15:50-57

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

“Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

I have concluded that the accumulation of wealth, even if I could achieve it, is an insufficient reason for living.

When I read the end of my days, a moment or two from now, I must look back on something more meaningful than the pursuit of houses or land, and machines, and stocks or bonds. Nor is fame of any lasting benefit. I will consider my earthly existence to have been wasted unless I can recall a loving family, a consistent investment in the lives of others, and an earnest attempt to serve the God who made me; and nothing else makes much sense.

~ James Dobson

“The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.”

~ Psalm 121:8
