Gathering Rites

Reception at the Cathedral Door

Charles was baptized in Christ. His body is now received at the door of the Cathedral, sprinkled with holy water and covered with the white pall as a reminder of his baptism.

We pray that as Charles died and rose with Christ, that he may now be clothed in the radiance of Christ's eternal glory.

Procession

Gathering Hymn

Here I Am, Lord

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you call-ing in the night. I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your peo - ple in my heart.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Here I Am, Lord'. It consists of three staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the first line of the hymn: 'Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you'. The second staff contains the second line: 'call-ing in the night. I will go, Lord, if you lead me.'. The third staff contains the third line: 'I will hold your peo - ple in my heart.' The music is written in a simple, accessible style suitable for a church service.

Reception of Holy Communion

For Catholics: As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians: We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

For all not receiving Communion: All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians: We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

Charles James Bruno, 79 of Beaumont, Texas passed away peacefully May 26, 2022, at Harbor Hospice. He was born on August 4, 1942, to Ina Capo Bruno and Pete Charles Bruno in Beaumont, Texas.

Growing up Charles was an incredible athlete and avid sports fan. Later in life he was blessed with 6 athletic grandsons. You could always find him in the stands at one their games where he was in his glory.

Charles had a smile that would light up a room and a contagious laugh that was unforgettable to all who knew him. He was a selfless man with a heart of gold.

Charles was employed by J. Weingarten for 30 years until the company sold out. He remained in the grocery business for many years. He later worked for Pure Play Orthopedics. Upon retirement, Charles went to work for Broussard's Mortuary where he was currently employed.

He is survived by Mary Ann Bruno; daughters, Ina and her husband, David and Charlotte and her husband, Tommy; six grandsons that were his pride and joy, Matthew and his wife, Jessica; Taylor Pace; Andrew Pace; William Miller; Jonathan Miller; Patrick Miller; and great-granddaughter, Brooklyn Kate Pace.

Charles is preceded in death by his parents, Pete and Ina Bruno and angel baby grandson, Christopher Charles Miller.
