Call to Worship

Invocation & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

† Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The family of Betty Haisten thanks each of you for your presence today as we remember Betty's completed life on earth and celebrate her joyful entry into the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Everyone is invited to a reception in the fellowship hall following the service.

Betty Ann Key Haisten, 93, of Beaumont, died Sunday June 12, 2022, at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. She was born on August 22, 1928, in Goose Creek, Texas, but grew up in Galveston.

She was married to Dr. Maurice Wyatt Haisten for forty-seven years. Before her marriage, she worked in banking with her last position being held as vice president of a bank in New Orleans, Louisiana. She also modeled for department stores in Houston and wrote articles on etiquette and fashion for the Houston

Chronicle. After marriage, she became a devoted wife and mother. She also volunteered for the Neches River Festival, Texas Medical Auxiliary Association, with her final position as Southeast Regional President. At 72, she became a CASA volunteer for 16 years. Betty was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church serving on several committees, an Elder of the church, and eventually a greeter.

Betty lived a full life devoted to caring for others. She was a loving wife and devoted mother to her 5 children. Her love for God and church was strong. She would say she loved every minute of living but yet was not afraid of death as she was good with God. Her strength and independence were admired by all that knew her. Betty was loved by many and will be missed, but not forgotten.

Survivors include her children, Susan Haisten and Penny Haisten Kavanaugh; grandchildren, Jill Miller, Jim Miller, Kris Kavanaugh, Kevin Kavanaugh, and Josh Kavanaugh; eight great-grandchildren; and sister, Bonnie Hauge.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Maurice Wyatt Haisten; children, George Haisten, Thomas Haisten, and Lisa Haisten; granddaughter, Maurissa Haisten Opalecky; sister, Peggy Bass; and parents, Cecil Key and Bonnie Frank Velton.
