

Celebration of Life

Helen L. Padia

1928 - 2022

To My Loved Ones:

Keep in mind that God has blessed all generations.

Keep in mind the work of God's spirit in times past.

Keep deeply in your heart that the God who made you is with you.

May you have the courage to have hope in dark times.

May you be able to have faith despite confusion in the world.

May you be a source of love and a healing presence for others.

Go forth joyfully with great trust to where the Incarnate Word leads you knowing God is with you.

“Go Rest High on That Mountain”
by Vince Gill

*I know your life
On earth was troubled
And only you could know the pain
You weren't afraid to face the devil
You were no stranger to the rain
Go rest high on that mountain
Mom your work on earth is done
Go to heaven a-shoutin'
Love for the Father and the Son*

Helen Padia, 94, of Beaumont, died Thursday, July 21, 2022. She was born March 5, 1928, in Cuero, to Petra Flores Longoria and Victor Longoria.

Padia, Jr., of Beaumont; Raymond Padia and his wife, Sondra, of Beaumont; daughters, Mary Valdez of Spring; Margaret Denmon and her husband, Gary, Sr., of Beaumont; Betty De La Rosa and her husband, Israel, Sr., of Pearland; and numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and other family members.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Larry G. Padia, Sr. and daughter, Teresa P. Dauphine.

Letting Go

The angels gathered near your side
So very close to you
For they knew the pain and suffering
That you were going through

I thought about so many things
As I held tightly to your hand
Oh, how I wished that you were strong
And happy once again

But your eyes were looking homeward
To that place beyond the sky
Where Jesus held His outstretched arms
It was time to say goodbye

I struggled with my selfish thoughts
For I wanted you to stay
So we could walk and talk again
Like we did ... just yesterday

But Jesus knew the answer
And I knew you loved Him so
So I gave to you life's greatest gift
The gift of letting go
