Charles “Charlie” Pierce, 86, of Beaumont, died Thursday, August 18, 2022, at Collier Park, Beaumont. He was born August 22, 1935, in Beaumont, to Zella Mae Phillips Pierce and Fred Pierce.

He was a 60 year member of IBEW local 2286 in Beaumont. He worked as a Journeyman electrician for 37 years.

As his children grew older he was involved in Little League as an umpire and with a local Boy Scout troop. He always enjoyed listening to his old country music records (especially the music of Roy Acuff and the Dobro playing of Oswald Kirby) and working in his shop. Charlie was very involved with the First United Methodist Church in Beaumont. He was active in the Beaumont Police Department’s Citizen’s Academy. He also helped with many Habitat for Humanity builds over the years.

The biggest joy of his later life was watching his grandchildren and great grandchildren grow up. He supported them by attending hundreds of their sporting events in the last 40 years.

He loved dogs, and had many over his lifetime. As he got up in years, he could no longer care for a dog on his own, but his son’s dog Stella was a ready substitute. His “Little Girl” loved him and was always ready to go see her Paw Paw. He doted on his many other doggy friends at Collier Park and kept treats in his walker for them.

Charles is survived by his sons, Charles A. Pierce, Jr. and his wife, Kathy, of Beaumont; Mark Allen Pierce and his wife, Beverly, of Hillsboro, Oregon; daughter, Cheryl Lynn Spears and her husband, George, of Lumberton; Janet Hebert and her husband, Scott, of Richmond; grandsons, Chris Spears, Charlie Hebert, Matt Spears, Mathew Pierce, Bob Sonnier; granddaughters, Jennifer Spears, Amber Cessac, Katie Rike, Kristi Mott; and twenty great-grandchildren.

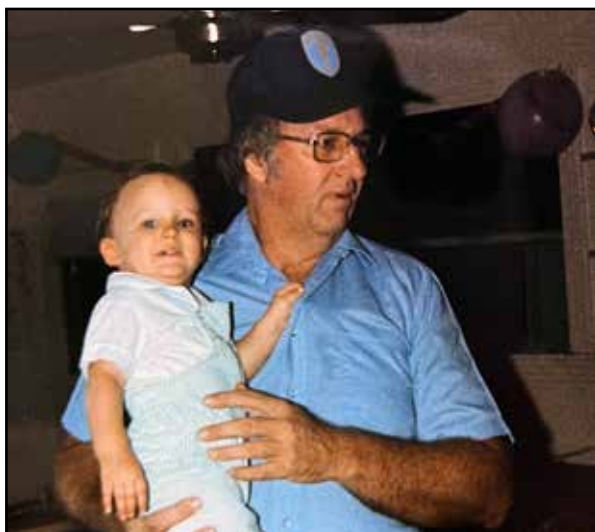

He is preceded in death by his wife, Mary Ann Pierce.
