

Lou Mills

December 4, 1940 - September 8, 2022

Lou Mills, 81, of Houston, died Thursday, September 8, 2022, at Harbor Hospice House of Houston. She was born on December 4, 1940, to Mary Doan Vanover and Jack Vanover.

Lou grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio, and spent most of her life in Texas raising her four children. She was a very strong willed and determined woman. Lou liked buying, selling, and renovating rental properties. She formed her own business in advertising and retired after twenty years. Lou enjoyed working in the yard, putting puzzles together and spending time with her kids and grandkids. She was the happiest when surrounded by those she loved. Lou will be remembered for her smile, her laugh, and her beauty.

Survivors include her children, Debra Cutrona of Houston; Donna Qualls and her husband, Tom, of Lumberton; Karen Mouton and her husband, Dave, of Alvin; and Alvin Hammons of Lubbock; grandson, Chad Taylor and his significant other, Chelsie McDonald; great-grandchildren, Brayden Taylor and Brynlee Taylor; and brother, Jimmy Vanover.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Mary Doan Vanover and Jack Vanover and brother, George Vanover.

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And only remember the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west.
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

Until We Meet Again

*We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain,
To walk and guide us through our lives,
Until we meet again.*
