Roy G. Olivier, 98, of Winnie died Friday, September 23, 2022 at his residence. He was born on July 29, 1924 in Church Point, LA to Albert Olivier, Jr. and Annie Richard Olivier. On February 16, 1946, he married Emma Mae Hanks and their marriage lasted one month shy of sixty-three years—a remarkable testament to love, devotion and the institution of marriage. Roy and Emma lived in Nederland for twelve years before moving to Winnie in 1958, where Roy resided after Emma’s passing in 2009 until his death.

He proudly served our country during World War II in the US Navy as a Seaman Second Class, stationed at Pearl Harbor, HI. Upon discharge, he returned to Church Point, LA where he worked on his family’s farm. A few years later, he moved to Port Arthur, where he took a job at Texaco as a process operator, got married, and started a family; anyone who knew him during those days can truly say there is no doubt he loved his children and grandchildren deeply. Roy was a devout Catholic, long-time member of the St. Louis Knights of Columbus and was extremely active in the church, serving as an usher, volunteering for St. Vincent de Paul at The Vine, and anywhere else he was needed.

Roy was also a gifted carpenter doing a lot of the custom wood work in his home and after he retired from Texaco worked with a close friend remodeling houses. He also had a deep love for fishing and gardening and was always willing to mentor the younger generation in the art of both. He was also a very accomplished cook of Cajun cuisine, frequently cooking up savory dishes from his catch of the day or garden. His squash casseroles were all the rage in Winnie!

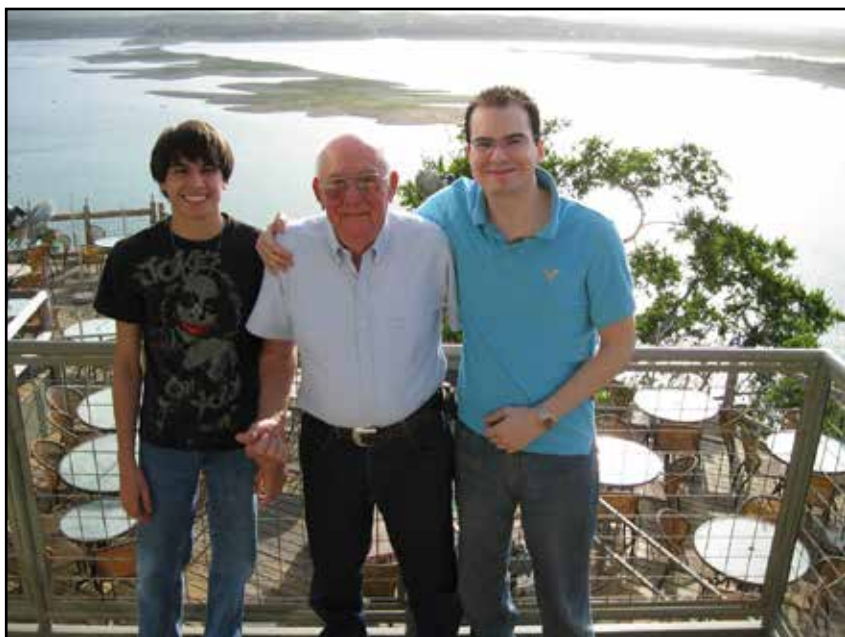

He is survived by his daughter Michelle Wilson and her husband Mark of Georgetown, TX; son Michael Olivier of Littleton, CO; sisters Catherine Hawkins and husband David of Torrence, CA; Cecelia (Cedia) Lavergne and husband Raymond of Rayne, LA; brother Mickey Olivier and wife Kathy of Lafayette, LA; sister-in-law Theresa Olivier of Lafayette, LA; grandsons Mark Wilson II and Eric Wilson of Georgetown, TX; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

The family would like to express their sincere thanks to Phyllis German, Celicia Moeller, and Terri Breaux West for their loving support and care of Roy in his later years and recent weeks.
