Ruby was a God-fearing woman who loved the Lord and her family. She was funny, the life of the party, and a great cook, specializing in dishes that reminded you of good home cooking. Ruby enjoyed traveling to see family and friends whenever she could. She was grandma to all her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors include her daughter, Berna Shelby of Beaumont; grandchildren, Charles Gosey and CL Kennebrew III, both of Beaumont, Gary Kennebrew of Silsbee, and LaKeshia Kennebrew-Thompson and her husband, Cret, Sr. of Beaumont; great-grandchildren, Allie Kennebrew, Nia Kennebrew, Channing Green, Devion Edward, Londyn Edward, Verndrea Thompson, Cretiana Thompson, Cret Thompson, Jr., and Legend Thompson; sisters, Margaret Jackson, Mary Jackson, and Virginia Martin, all of Texas City; and extended family, friends, and loved ones through the years.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband; sisters, Bessie Mae Rollins, Dessie Mae Kirby, Nacy Henderson, Itzetta Montaque, and Alther Martin; and brothers, Wesley Martin, Kenneth Martin, Joe Martin, Jr., and James Martin.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies.

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
