Jacqueline “Jacque” Rae Liston, 81, of Hull, died Sunday, October 23, 2022. She was born on December 9, 1940, to Amis Rae Thompson Anderson and John Ray Anderson, in McAllen, and served in the United States Air Force. Jacque was a 1959 graduate of Beaumont High School and attended Sam Houston State University.

She was a talented mezzo-alto who took a lot of joy in her music. Jacque loved working in her yard when she was able and was an avid reader. She was a loving sister, mother, and “Grammy”.

Survivors include her children, Lynda Mae Sawyer and her husband, Phillip and Kevin William Liston and his wife, Angie; siblings, Gwenda Lynn Johnston and Judy Gay Potts and her husband, Stephen; grandchildren, Robert Cook, Emma Sawyer, Mary Sawyer, Michael Liston, Thomas Liston, and Christopher Liston; and numerous friends, loved ones, and church family members through the years.

She preceded in death by her parents; sister, Helen Iris Peebles; brothers-in-law, Harold Raymond Johnston, Jr. and John C. Peebles; and grandson, Benjamin Cook.
