Mr. Pevito graduated from South Park High School in 1952 and attended Lamar University until he was drafted into the United States Army in 1953. After returning from the Army, he was employed by Mobil Oil Company in 1956 and then married Patsy in 1957.

He and Pat made their home in Beaumont until 1965. They moved to Winnie with their four children, where he raised cattle and farmed, while continuing his employment with Mobil Oil Company until he retired in 1987.

He had many accomplishments throughout his life. Tommy was honored Conservation Farmer of the Year in 1973 for his excellence in soil, water, and plant conservation. He was an avid duck hunter and guide. He was also a trapper and alligator hunter. In his past time, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, working in his shop, and spending time with family and friends.

Survivors include his wife of sixty-five years, Pat Pevito of Winnie; children, Dona Jorden and husband, John, of Wharton; Roxanne Hall and husband, John, of Fannett; Wayne Pevito and wife, Kathy, of Walker, Louisiana; Lynn Pevito and wife, Nikki, of Brooklyn Park, Minnesota; his closest friends that he considered his children, Cleve and Neica Bertrand, and Paula Rothwell of Winnie; sister, Linda Norton and husband, Robert, of Pineforest; seventeen grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.
