Charles Francis Porter, 82, went to be with Jesus on Thursday, October 6, 2022. He was born July 25, 1940, to Sandy L. and Fannie Bell Porter. On October 7, 1961, he married the love of his life, Betty Emmons. He was an amazing husband, father, Pawpaw and friend.

Charlie was very proud of his two daughters and their families. He was loved by just about everyone who met him. He never met a stranger. Charlie was fun-loving, energetic, friendly, and outgoing. His greatest passions in his life were fishing and his family. He was happiest when he and his family were out on the water reeling in big flounders. He and his beautiful wife, Betty, were fantastic dancers who loved to jitterbug. For them, all it took was two couples and a record player to have a party. And they loved to entertain. Charlie was very creative and was an incredible artist. He loved to draw, sketch and paint. He was very active in civic organizations over the years including the Nederland Heritage Festival Committee, Jaycees, and Optimist Clubs.

Charlie is preceded in death by his parents; his three sisters, Marie Morgan, Fannie Bell Chancellor, and Lola Lee Reynolds; his brother, Sandy L. Porter, Jr.; and his mother-in-law, Agnes Cryer Foster.

Those left to mourn him are his wife, Betty Emmons Porter; daughter, Debbie Griffin and Dan Mitchell; daughter, Kim Woods and Jay Woods; granddaughters, Cassie Harrison and her husband, Rob, and Jenna Crump; grandson, Colby Woods and Shannon Guidry; and three great-granddaughters, Brooklyn Harrison, Kayleigh Crump and Amelia Crump.
