Stephen “Gabby” Edward George, 76, of League City, passed away on Sunday, November 20, 2022. He was born August 9, 1946, in Galveston, to Dorothy Mae Berwick and John Joseph George.

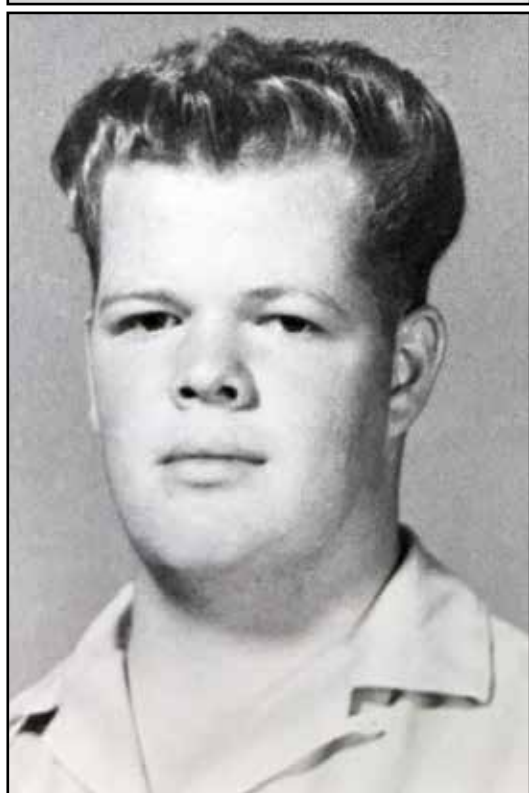

Survivors include his wife, Peggy George of League City; daughters, Megan Stafford and wife, Samantha, of Houston and Stefanie Dristas and husband, Gregory, of Boerne; granddaughter, Alyssa Dristas; brothers, Delbert Bull and Michael George; and former spouse, Janeen Rickard.

He is preceded in death by his parents, and brother, Dickie George.

Steve grew up in High Island, Texas. He graduated from High Island High School where he was voted “Most Cheerful” and “Wittiest.” After completion of five years of apprentice school, Steve had a long successful career as a Pipefitter and was a Lifetime Member of the Pipefitters Local 211. For ten years, Steve and his wife Peggy owned and operated South Shore Grocery in Crystal Beach.

Steve was a member of the Archives #1399 Masonic Lodge in Pasadena where he rose in rank and became a Master Mason.

Steve was a beloved husband, father, and Papa to his granddaughter Alyssa. He loved music, especially jazz, rock, and the blues. Steve was an avid cook and made fantastic gumbo, pico de gallo, charro beans, and coleslaw. He could often be found watching the weather channel, a cooking show, or a music documentary. His hobbies included fishing, operating a ham radio, playing the guitar, and creating beautiful stained-glass art. Steve loved traveling on cruises, visiting Nebraska, and vacationing at Disney with his family.
