Benediction

Lane Helveston Tuminello, dedicated husband, son, brother, and friend of many, passed away on November 1, 2022, at the age of 32, surrounded by family at home.

Lane was born to Melinda Ardoin and Dominick Helveston in Nederland, Texas. He graduated from Westbrook High School in Beaumont before attending Texas Tech University where he studied Business Administration and Marketing. After graduating, he moved to Austin, Texas where he played professional poker and met the love of his life, Erin Tuminello, née Vassar, and they eventually settled in Beaumont with their three frenchies Pablo, Ivy, and Ace.

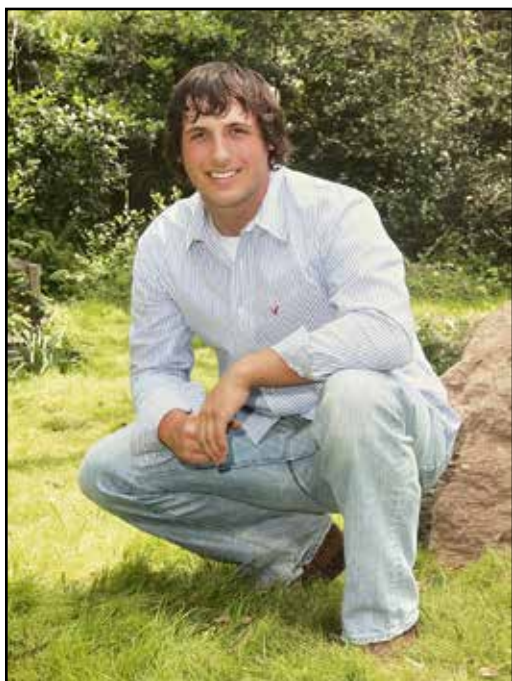

Through the years, Lane enjoyed playing and coaching baseball, traveling, cooking, and making memories with his family and friends. Lane was a stranger to no one and found great purpose sharing in the successes, joys, and challenges of those around him. Lane was authentically and wholeheartedly there for those in his life.

He is survived by wife, Erin Tuminello; mother, Melinda Ardoin (Tony), grandparents, Etta and Claude Helveston; sister, Kelly (Troy); and his nieces and nephews: Kannon, Rhett, Carter, Mattie, Brynn, Blaire, Sloane, and Benjamin.

Lane was preceded in death by his paternal great-grandparents, Dorothy and Dominick Tuminello; his maternal grandparents, Virginia and Haden Potter; and his uncle, Patrick Helveston.
