Dismissal to Graveside

Gilda O. Wilson, 86, of Port Neches, died Tuesday, November 1, 2022. She was born May 13, 1936, in Tylertown, Mississippi, to Lena Mae Thornhill and Wilton O'Quin.

Gilda retired as an LVN in 1959. She loved to volunteer at The Medical Center of Southeast Texas, Port Arthur after retirement. She had a faithful fellowship at Ridgewood Baptist Church.

The Houston Astros were Gilda's favorite team and she loved to watch them play. One of her last wishes was to watch them enter the World Series. She also loved to listen to Christian music, spend time with her family, and gardening. Gilda truly had a wonderful life, and she enjoyed every moment.

Gilda will be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was a warm and caring person whose kind heart always shined, and she will be missed forever.

Survivors include her children, Timothy Wilson of Beaumont; Deborah Cutrer and husband, Gus, of Vidor; Judy Collier and husband, Randy, of Port Neches; and Holly Wilson and spouse, Kim, of Groves; grandchildren, Nathan Grayson; Josh Grayson; Katlyn McAnally; and Kelsey Oranday; great-grandchildren, Branden, Taylor, Eli, Abigail, Carl, Patience, Donovan, Braylon "Bub", Kyler, Charlee Kay, Brodee, Brynleigh, and Brooklynn; great-great-granddaughter, Wrenley Mae; sister, Willie Mae Johnson of Prairieville, Louisiana; and aunt, Norma Jean Coker of Jayess, Mississippi.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Charles Henry Wilson; and brother, Gary O'Quin.

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Your wings were ready, but our hearts were not.
