Loretta Young, 89, of Groves, passed away peacefully Friday, November 4, 2022. She was born October 31, 1933, in Port Arthur, to Mildred and John W. Carlquist.

Loretta was a lifelong area resident, attended school in Port Arthur and married her high school sweetheart, Kenneth, in Lakeview Methodist Church, Port Arthur. She and her husband, as longtime members of First United Methodist Church of Groves, raised their family in the church, and she enjoyed her time singing in the choir. Although she would identify first as a homemaker, she retired from Southern Union Gas Company in 1988. She loved gadgets, kitchen and otherwise, gardening, and most of all, baking. She also made many birthday and wedding cakes for family and friends. She was a Hallmark movie enthusiast and a devoted viewer and patron of the QVC channel. Camping with family and friends, square dancing with her husband of 71 years, and traveling were among the great joys of her life. Above all, she loved and found her greatest fulfillment spending time with her family.

Survivors include her son, Dr. Roger Young; daughters, Karin Ladewig and husband, Larry, and Brenda Young; grandchildren, Lindsay Kramer and husband, Dr. Robert Kramer; Rachel Barnes Elizondo and husband, Juan; Kristopher Barnes and wife, Shannon; and Robbie Barnes and wife, Lori; great-grandchildren, Caleb, Kaylie, and Graham Snider; Emma and Presley Barnes; Addison and Bailey Barnes; and a great-granddaughter on the way.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Theron "T.K." Young; sister, Betty Martin; brother, John V. Carlquist; and daughter-in-law, Melissa Mayer Young.
