O My Father

1. O my Father, thou that dwellest
In the high and glorious place,
When shall I regain thy presence
And again behold thy face?
In thy holy habitation,
Did my spirit once reside?
In my first primeval childhood
Was I nurtured near thy side?

2. For a wise and glorious purpose
Thou hast placed me here on earth
And withheld the recollection
Of my former friends and birth;
Yet ofttimes a secret something
Whispered, "You're a stranger here,"
And I felt that I had wandered
From a more exalted sphere.

3. I had learned to call thee Father,
Thru thy Spirit from on high,
But, until the key of knowledge
Was restored, I knew not why.
In the heav'ns are parents single?
No, the thought makes reason stare!
Truth is reason; truth eternal
Tells me I've a mother there.

4. When I leave this frail existence,
When I lay this mortal by,
Father, Mother, may I meet you
In your royal courts on high?
Then, at length, when I've completed
All you sent me forth to do,
With your mutual approbation
Let me come and dwell with you.

God Be With You Till We Meet Again

1. God be with you till we meet again;
By his counsels guide, uphold you;
With his sheep securely fold you.
God be with you till we meet again.

[Chorus]

Till we meet, till we meet,
Till we meet at Jesus' feet,
Till we meet, till we meet,
God be with you till we meet again.

2. God be with you till we meet again;
When life's perils thick confound you,
Put his arms unfailing round you.
God be with you till we meet again.

3. God be with you till we meet again;
Keep love's banner floating o'er you;
Smite death's threat'ning wave before you.
God be with you till we meet again.

Wanda Lavoie, 94, a longtime resident of Nederland, Texas, passed away Saturday, December 10, 2022, at Village Creek Rehabilitation and Nursing Center, Lumberton. She was born July 3, 1928, to Mary Sanson Pittman and Ellie Franklin Pittman.

Wanda devoted many years to Fair Store as a bookkeeper. Her love of gardening made her yard the envy of the neighborhood. Nothing made her happier than her children and grandchildren coming to visit. Wanda was a good friend and neighbor and her love for her family was immense. She will be missed by all those that were fortunate enough to love or know her.

Survivors include her siblings, Harold Pittman and Alvie Marie “Tooker” Rougeau; children, James Wallace and wife, Elaine; Cindie Miller and husband, Jeff; Phillip Wallace and wife, Cheri; Melissa Buxton and husband, Dennis; and Bobbie Camille and husband, Mark; twenty-two grandchildren; forty-seven great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents; first and second husband, Weldon Wallace (1969) and Albert Lavoie (2005); daughter, Charlotte Bradshaw; great-grandson, Kyler Buxton; and siblings, Andrew “Bud” Pittman; Sheila Pittman “Bill” Giles; Winford “Chubby” Pittman; Kelleth “KT” Pittman; Paul “Jack” Pittman; and Jerry “Rodney” Pittman.
