Douglas Clayton McShan, 88, went to meet his Heavenly Father on Wednesday, December 14, 2022. He was born on November 26, 1934, in Grayburg, Texas, the son of Kirk McShan and Ethel Artie Gunter and was a long-time resident of Sour Lake, Texas.

On December 28, 1954, Doug and Emily Beth Williford were united in marriage. They enjoyed 56 years of marriage until Emily's death in 2012. Throughout his lifetime, he found great joy in his four children and eight grandchildren and was very active in all of their lives. He proudly referred to his family as "The Mighty, Mighty, McShan's!"

Known for his strong work ethic, Doug worked his entire career at Transco/Williams Company. He retired as Regional Manager after 40+ years of service back home in Sour Lake.

Doug was blessed with a large family and his love and memories will remain in the hearts of his children, Sherry McShan Kershaw and her husband, Rodney, of Lake Charles, Louisiana; Jim McShan and his wife, Jamie, of Willis, Texas; and Douglas W. McShan and his wife, Monica, of Houston, Texas; the pride and joy of Doug's life, his grandchildren, Jerry Douglas McShan and his wife, Jennifer; Curtis Stallings and his wife, Stefanie; Andrea Shinn and her husband, Jeremy; Troy Mauney II and his wife, Lexie; Shandi Ramsey and her husband, Kirk; Callie Callesto and her husband, Ryan; Sarah Switzer and her husband, Jason; and Chance McShan and all of his great-grandchildren including Brayden Douglas and Bryleigh McShan, Micah, Caleb and Katelyn Stallings, Jace and Allison Shinn, Douglas Ryan and Vivienne Ramsey, Layla and Hayden Mauney, Matthew Douglas Switzer; and many nieces and nephews.
