Concluding Remarks and Prayer

E-Lane Langston, 91, of Beaumont, died Saturday, January 28, 2023, at Christus Southeast Texas-St. Elizabeth, Beaumont. E-Lane Fisher Langston was born in Beaumont, Texas, on December 8, 1931, to Howell Rayburn Fisher, Sr. and Maggie Estelle Bamburg Fisher.

The youngest of four children, E-Lane graduated from South Park High School in 1949 and then attended Lamar State College and nursing school at Hotel Dieu Hospital. E-Lane met Lee Bridges Langston on a blind date in 1949. It was a good date and the beginning of a lifetime of love as they were married two years later on February 9, 1951. Their 72-year marriage was blessed with three children, Jennifer, Sandra, and Stanley.

E-Lane and Lee lived in and enjoyed the South Park area of Beaumont until 1994, when they moved to Bevil Oaks. She was a devoted and loving wife and mother and a committed Christian. E-Lane and Lee raised their family in Highland Avenue Baptist Church and were later members of South Park Baptist Church and First Baptist Church of Bevil Oaks. As a result of the destruction of their Bevil Oaks home by Hurricane Harvey in 2017 and health issues suffered by E-Lane in 2018, she and Lee resided in Buckner Calder Woods at the time she went home to be with the Lord.

E-Lane was preceded in death by her parents and her siblings, H.R. (Junior) Fisher, Jr., Chester Fisher, and Mary Frances Monroe.

She is survived by those she loved and that loved her so dearly, her husband, Lee; sister-in-law, Shirley Joyce; children, Jennifer Martin (Bobby) of Plano, Sandra Talbot (Gary) of Orangefield, and Stanley Langston (Lisa) of Friendswood as well as by her 6 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, Brandon Martin (Casey) and Kate and Caleb Martin of Dallas; Todd Martin (Caroline) and Luke and Molly Martin of Dallas; Paul Talbot (Jeannie) and Cameron Underwood, Norah June, and Teddy Talbot of Spring; Katy Murray (Stephen) and Benjamin and Maren Murray of Dallas; Matthew Talbot of Orange; and Zachary Hardy (Bryn) of Cameron. She is also survived by numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
