Closing Words

Mable “Lee” Carter Forsythe, 97, of Nederland, died Thursday, February 23, 2023, at the Rose Place, Port Arthur. She was born February 16, 1926, in Stone County, Arkansas, to John and Myrtle Carter.

In 1945, Lee married Jack Hicklin and together they had two children, Jonnie and Tom Hicklin. Jack passed away and many years later she met Paul Forsythe. Lee and Paul married in 1988 and they shared twenty-three years together before Paul passed away in 2012.

Lee and Paul loved traveling, square dancing, and fellowship with their church friends. They were both members of First Methodist Church, Nederland.

Lee loved all her nieces and nephews from Arkansas. They were all very dear to her but she and her niece, Lynn Welsh, had a special bond. They shared so many wonderful times together and had a loving and close relationship.

Survivors include her children, Tom Hicklin and wife, Claudia and Jonnie Warren; grandchildren, Matt Warren and wife, Liz; Megan Standley; Alisa Hicklin Fryar and husband, Daniel; and Kayla Hicklin Russell and husband, Chuck; great-grandchildren, Kailey Warren; Paisley Warren; Teagan Warren; Kelsey Russell; Luke Carter Russell; and Lily Fryar; stepson, Wayne Forsythe; step-grandchildren, Baja Forsythe; Brent Forsythe; Kim Burns and husband, Shanon; and step-great-grandchildren, Dutch and Cash Burns.

She is preceded in death by her parents; first husband, Jack Hicklin, and second husband, Paul Forsythe.
