

Crystal Lynn Parmer
October 22, 1959 - February 6, 2023

Celebrating the Life of
Crystal Lynn Parmer

Saturday, February 11, 2023 12:00 p.m.
Faith Tabernacle Apostolic Church
Port Arthur, Texas

“Believe For It”
Brother Joe Clay, Sarah Clay and Abigaëlle Wolf

Opening Prayer
Brother Wesley Jackson

“Address Change Notification”
Brother Joe Clay and Sarah Clay

Obituary
Brother Kaleb Rule

“I’ll Meet You In The Rapture”
Brother Joe Clay and Sarah Clay

Sermon
Brother Joe Clay

Crystal Lynn Parmer, 63, of Ozark, Arkansas, died Monday, February 6, 2023. She was born on October 22, 1959, in Port Arthur, to Patricia June Hopkins Borne and Malcolm Travis Borne.

Crystal Lynn Parmer was affectionately known by most as Granny Crystal. She was quick to start a conversation with anyone including absolute strangers and could become a close and caring friend to anyone. Her ability to cook was unparalleled, filled with Texas Cajun flavor, whether it was small portions or for a large crowd. She was well known as an ornate and meticulous cake maker for all of her loved one's special occasions. Her friends and family will always remember and cherish her as a fun, happy, sacrificial, and compassionate person.

Survivors include her daughters, Tracie Clay and her husband, Reverend Joe, of Ozark, Arkansas and Sherri Parmer of Groves; grandchildren, Andrew Clay and his wife, Mallory, of Clarksville, Arkansas; and Sarah Clay and Reina Clay, both of Ozark, Arkansas; sister, Darlene McCall of Lumberton; and brother, Lonny Borne and his wife, Becky, of Tomball. She is preceded in death by her parents; stepfather, J.W. Hodges; and granddaughter, Diana Clay.

Pallbearers

Kelby McCall
Chad Borne
Paul Drawhorn
Andrew Clay
Bobby Edwards
David Goebel
Mark Foster
Adam Crush

Interment

Memory Gardens of Jefferson County
Nederland, Texas

Broussards
Established 1889

Please sign Mrs. Parmer's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com