“Victory in Jesus”

Verse 1

I heard an old, old story,
How a Savior came from glory,
How He gave His life on Calvary
To Save a wretch like me
I heard about His groaning,
Of His precious blood's atoning,
Then I repented of my sins and won the victory

Chorus

O Victory in Jesus
My savior for ever
He sought me and bo't me
With his redeeming blood
He loved me ere I knew Him
And all my love is due Him
He plunged me to victory
Beneath the cleansing flood

Verse 2

I heard about a mansion
He has built for me in glory
And I heard about the streets of gold
Beyond the crystal sea
About the angels singing
And the old redemption story
And some sweet day I'll sing up there
The song of victory

Chorus

“Blessed Assurance”

Verse 1

Blessed assurance
Jesus is mine
Oh what a foretaste
of glory divine
Heir of salvation
purchase of God
Born of His Spirit
washed in His blood

Chorus

This is my story
This is my song
Praising my Savior
All the day long
This is my story
This is my song
Praising my Savior
All the day long

Verse 2

Perfect submission
All is at rest
I in my Savior
Am happy and blest
Watching and waiting
Looking above
Filled with His goodness
Lost in His love

Chorus

“Amazing Grace”

Verse 1

Amazing Grace
How sweet the sound
That save a wretch like me
I once was lost
But now am found
Was blind but now I see

Verse 2

'Twas grace
That taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Verse 3

Through many dangers toils and snares
I have already come
Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

Verse 4

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun

Elsie Kennett Phillips, 92, of Beaumont, went to be with her Heavenly Father Monday, February 27, 2023, at Focused Care at Summer Place, Beaumont. She was born on April 10, 1930, to Edna Mire Chapman and Jesse Chapman, in Beaumont.

In her earlier years, she worked at the King Edward Hotel, in downtown Beaumont, where she met her husband, Boyd. Later she worked in retail and then as a real estate agent.

Faith in Christ and love for her family were the most important things in Elsie's life. She was faithful in reading her Bible and regularly attended church all her life until she was physically unable to do so. She loved music particularly the old hymns. She was a master seamstress who enjoyed making clothes for her children when they were young and even formals and wedding dresses as the girls were older. Other hobbies included crocheting Afghans, which she gave as gifts throughout the years to all her children. She also enjoyed working in her flower garden and had quite the green thumb with many varieties of plants. Elsie was known for her homemade biscuits and various jellies and fig preserves. She will be forever remembered as a loving wife, mother, and "Gammy."

Survivors include her daughters, Sandra Gould and her husband, Doyle, of Lumberton; Jennifer Becks and her husband, Jimmy, of Beaumont; Darla Pollard of Beaumont; and Nan Sutton and her husband, Robert, of Fannett; son, Ross Kennett and his wife, Lyn, of Beaumont; son-in-law Ronnie Shuler; grandchildren, Sonia Arndt and her husband, Byron; Kevin Gould; Dawn Senters and her husband, Todd; Wesley Shuler; Carly Galmor and her husband, Dustin; Stacey Crenshaw and her husband, Casey; Shannon Metz and her husband, Phillip; and Matthew Broussard; great-grandchildren, Dustin, Brooke and husband, Aaron, Kaitlin, Shane, T.J., Ethan, Hailey and husband Jaron, Cynthia, Sabrina, Bella, Daisy, Lily, Vaille, Clara, Case, Becks, Alexis, and Diesel; four great-great-grandchildren, Zaden, Jesslyn, Dillon and Lucas; and numerous other loving relatives and friends including her lifelong friend, Patricia Hord, who she loved like a sister. She is preceded in death by her husband of thirty-four years and father of her six children, Boyd Ross Kennett, Sr.; second husband of twenty-eight years, James Ryan Phillips; daughter, Deedra Shuler; grandsons, Chad Becks and Shane Shuler; and sons-in-law, Jason Broussard and Curtis Pollard.
