Reading

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of
righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord
forever.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Jane Streadl Kaulfus passed away in her home unexpectedly on March 27, 2023, leaving behind so many people whose lives she touched.

Born on March 7, 1960, in Port Arthur, Texas, Jane lived in Nederland, Texas for the majority of her life. It was there that she met and married Mark Kaulfus in 1979. She had two children, Jeremy and Meagan who were always first in her life. She was a source of strength and guidance for them until her last day on this earth. Both of them started families of their own and her love and support extended to her growing family.

As a lifelong Bulldog, you could often find Jane cheering on her favorite hometown football team. If she wasn't cheering for the high school, she was watching the Dallas Cowboys or, more recently, the Kansas City Chiefs win or lose, rain or shine. Jane loved watching sports and as a recent Houstonian, loved her Astros.

She is survived by husband, Mark Kaulfus; son Jeremy Kaulfus and his wife Kristy, and their children Dexter and Aria; daughter Meagan (Kaulfus) Bolin and her husband Matt Bolin; brother David Lee Streadl and his wife LaRue, and their sons Dustin, Justin and Brandon; brother Mike Streadl and his wife Gayle, and their children Charley and Alisha; as well as numerous extended family and lifelong friends.

She is predeceased by her parents David C Streadl and Sandra Lee Streadl.
