Closing Prayer

Dorothy (Ms. Dot) Dyer Kobrin was born September 26, 1931, in Camden-on-Gauley, West Virginia. Her parents were John and Ada Maude Dyer. She grew up in Richwood, West Virginia. She was active in the fine arts programs of her high school, band and theater. Upon graduation from high school she moved to Charleston, West Virginia., where she worked for an insurance company. She met Greg Kobrin at Christ Methodist Church and they were both members of The Charleston Light Opera Guild. They were married

June 29, 1957. They were active members of the choir at Trinity Methodist and MYF; sang in the choir at Cathedral in the Pines for many years and also served faithfully at Christian Fellowship. She accompanied Greg in his international travels as a consultant in the chemical refining industry.

On Thursday, May 4, 2023, she peacefully passed from this world to heaven.

She is preceded in death by sister, Pear Dyer; brother, Paul Dyer; sisters, Hazel Nevling, Audra Dyer McClung, Mabel Dyer Hutchinson, and Rose Dyer Elmer.

She is survived by her husband of 65 years, Greg Kobrin; brother, Jim Dyer; daughters, Kathy Kobrin; Susan White and her husband, Rick; son, David Kobrin and his wife, Julie; grandchildren, Jordan Martin, Chase White, Luke White, Daniel Kobrin and Emma Kobrin; great-grandsons, Matthew White, Caiden Martin and Austyn White.

God Promises to Answer Your Prayers

*Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find;
knock, and it will be opened to you.*

Matthew 7:7

God Promises to Always Be With You

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:38–39

God Promises to Work All Things for Your Good

And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.

Romans 8:28

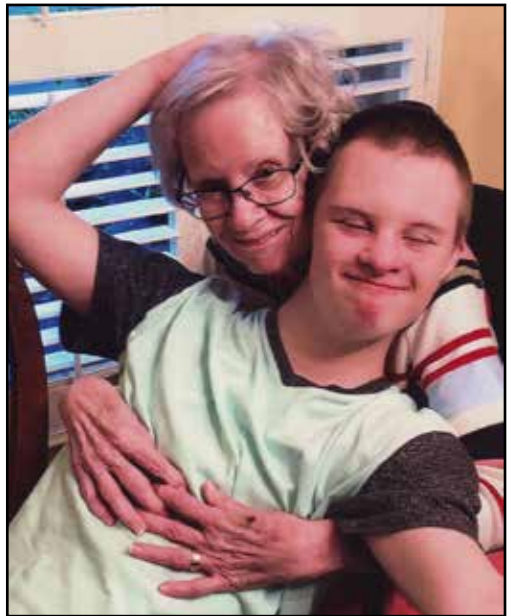

God Promises to Take Care of All Your Needs

And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:19

God Promises Freedom From Your Sin

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:9
