† Call to Worship

Invocation & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

† Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

† Hymn 276

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

The family of Bobby Thompson thanks each of you for your presence today as we remember Bobby's completed life on earth and celebrate his joyful entry into the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Bobby L. Thompson, 85, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, May 2, 2023. He was born on August 3, 1937, in Pleasant Hill, Louisiana, to Myrtle Rains and Archie Thompson.

Bobby retired from Gulf States Utilities as a draftsman after thirty-five years of service. He was an excellent woodworker and loved the Dallas Cowboys and Houston Astros. Bobby will forever remain a loving husband, father, and Granddaddy.

Survivors include his daughter, Karen T. Butler and her husband, Robin, of Beaumont; son, Scott Thompson and his wife, Rebecca, of Beaumont; grandchildren, Angela Strahan and her husband, Joe; Eric Butler and his girlfriend, Pamela Trigo; Christopher Thompson and his wife, Olivia; and Cody Thompson and his wife, Alicia; seven great-grandchildren; sister, Patricia Armstrong of Fort Walton, Florida; and numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and wife of over sixty-one years,
3 Barbara Thompson.

*We cross the deep without despair,
For You are there,
For You are there.*

*The quiet mountains call
We will stand tall
We will not fall.*

*So much I do not know
You watch me grow,
The seeds I sow.*

*Where would I be,
Without Thee,
Without Thee.*
