She is preceded in death by her parents, Loretta and Jack Thibodeaux; brother, Mark Thibodeaux; sister-in law, Rhonda Thibodeaux; and her great nephew, Angel Gallardo.

Phyllis and her husband Randy spent 45 loving years together. Their early days were spent raising their children, riding motorcycles, and boating on the Neches River. They spent all these years together as friends, partners, and lovers. Phyllis enjoyed nothing more than a house full of company, cooking and eating, and a good country music sing along, especially to The Judds. Life became even more fun for Phyllis when she became “Maw Maw.” Her grandchildren were her pride and joy. You could find her in the kitchen on Saturday mornings making chocolate chip pancakes or any other special breakfast request. There was not an item that was not available in Maw Maw’s kitchen. You could count on her to be at all the birthday parties, dance recitals, and basketball games. Phyllis did all of this with a sweet smile and twinkle in her eye.

Friends and family are smiling through tears thinking of all of the wonderful times we enjoyed together. We will all miss her. Rest in peace Phyllis - wife, mother, sister, Maw Maw and friend.
