Closing Prayer

Dean C. Lyda, 74, of Port Neches, died Monday, June 5, 2023. He was born on August 13, 1948, to Grace Allyne Joyner and William Woodrow Lyda, in Port Arthur. Dean was a graduate of the Port Neches-Groves class of 1966 and then graduated from the University of Houston School of Pharmacy class of 1970.

He was a local pharmacist for 40 years and a member of First Baptist of Port Neches for 25 years, where he enjoyed being part of the choir. Dean was known for his quick wit, puns, and movie quotes. He was very proud of his PN-G Indian heritage, was a die-hard Fox News viewer, and he adored his rescue dogs. Above all, he was devoted to his family.

Survivors include his wife, Roxanne Lyda; daughters, Wendy Castille and her husband, Jerret, of Beaumont and Jamie Hinson and her husband, Tim, of League City; grandchildren, Morgan Castille, Ally Castille, Ethan Hinson, and Chelsea Hinson.

He is preceded in death by his parents.

Desiderata

Go Placidly Amid The Noise & Haste

Remember What Peace There May Be In Silence

As far as possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly & clearly; listen to others, even the dull & the ignorant, they too have their story. Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit.

If you compare yourself to others, you may become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble, it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery.

But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about Love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is a perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune.

But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars, you have a right to be here. Whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore, be at Peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. Whatever your labors and aspirations; in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Be Cheerful! Strive To Be Happy!
