On Friday, July 28, 2023, Braden Jay Bouse went to heaven at the age of 12 years old. He was born on April 4, 2011, along with his twin brother, Masen Joseph Bouse, to Billy Jay Bouse Jr. and Kelley Nicole Bouse.

He was a blessing that brought many new family members into our lives including Christy Hatcher, Kellie Daniel, and Treivon Stelly to name a few. Braden truly showed everyone how to love at a deeper level and would make every day better, with his big smile and gripped hugs. Despite his everyday challenges, Braden was always full of happiness that was instantly contagious. Every evening at bedtime he would curl up on the couch with his daddy and fall asleep. He loved his mama and loved to give her lots of hugs and kisses. He loved his brother, Masen, and loved playing with his big red ball together. Braden's beloved presence would always remind everyone to appreciate the simple things in life by celebrating every activity with his precious laughter and joyous claps. Braden kept everyone on their toes by not knowing when a toy was going to fly by. There was no way to fool him when it came to his favorite things. Only Hostess powdered donettes and popcorn chicken would do, along with his favorite oatmeal cream pies. Making people laugh with fake sneezes was his gift. Braden will never be alone as his spirit will carry on in the hearts of all who loved him dearly.

This sweet-hearted child who would always brighten your day with a loving smile is preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Sharilyn Craig and paternal great-grandfather, Joseph Roberts.

Braden is survived by his parents; twin brother, Masen Bouse; sister, Hallie McCullough and husband, Cahl; sister, Kylie Rogers; maternal grandparents, Sam and Gwen Craig; paternal grandparents, Billy Sr. and Nancy Bouse and Sandra and Thomas Elder; paternal great-grandparent, Mary Laverne Roberts; aunts, Valerie Del Bosque and Jana Craig; uncle, Shawn Craig and wife, Laura; as well as numerous cousins and loving family and friends.
