Celebrating the Life of Sharon Kay Hall

Broussard's Chapel
Beaumont, Texas
Reverend Ruby Nelson

GREETING:

Friends, we have gathered here to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the life of Sharon Kay Hall.

We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss.

May God grant us grace that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

PRAYER:

O God, who gave us birth, you are ever more ready to hear that we are to pray. You know our needs before we ask, and our ignorance in asking. Give to us now your grace, that as we shrink before the mystery of death, that we may see the light of eternity.

Speak to us once more your solemn message of life and death.

Help us to live as those who are prepared to die.

And when our days here are accomplished, enable us to die as those who go forth to live.

In living and in dying, our life is in you.

Nothing in life or in death will be able to separate us from your great love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen

SPECIAL MUSIC

Deuteronomy 10:12

Matthew 7:12

PSALM 23:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil. My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

TESTIMONY

by Tully Butler

THE LORD'S PRAYER:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

PRAYER OF THANKS:

God of all, your love never ends.
When all else fails, you are still God.
We pray to you for one another in our need and for all, anywhere,
who mourn with us this day.
To those who doubt, give light.
To those who are weak, strength.
To those who have sinned, mercy.
To all who sorrow, your peace.
Keep true in us the love with which we hold one another.
In all our ways we trust you.
And to you, with your Church on earth and in heaven,
we offer honor and glory, now and forever. Amen

Benediction: Go in peace.

Sharon Kay Hall, 76, of Beaumont, died peacefully Monday, July 10, 2023, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont. She was born on July 23, 1946, to Betty Setliff Hall and Kenneth Hall, Sr., in Beaumont.

Survivors include her son, Tully “Hutch” Butler and his wife, Aagii; brother, Don Hall; and grandchildren, Tully E. Butler, Naraa Butler, and Austin Butler, all of Beaumont; nieces, Katy Hall of Crested Butte, Colorado and Amy Romero Hall of Snowmass, Colorado; as well as numerous cousins and other family members.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Kenneth E. Hall, Jr. and her parents, Betty Setliff and Kenneth Hall, Sr.

Sharon made a difference in countless lives as a licensed massage therapist in the communities of Columbus and LaGrange, Texas, with clients coming to her for help from far and wide for over 30 years. It was not only her healing touch that brought a continuous stream of folks in need, but in large part her infectious joy, perpetual smile and bottomless generosity.

More than anything, she loved being with people and following her only son to the far reaches of the globe including Mongolia and the Big Island of Hawaii. Her zest for life, adventurous spirit and joyous nature will be deeply missed.
