The Saddest Noise, The Sweetest Noise

by Emily Dickinson

*The saddest noise, the sweetest noise,
The maddest noise that grows,-
The birds, they make it in the spring,
At night's delicious close.*

*Between the March and April line-
That magical frontier
Beyond which summer hesitates,
Almost too heavenly near.*

*It makes us think of all the dead
That sauntered with us here,
By separation's sorcery
Made cruelly more dear.*

*It makes us think of what we had,
And what we now deplore.
We almost wish those siren throats
Would go and sing no more.*

*An ear can break a human heart
As quickly as a spear,
We wish the ear had not a heart
So dangerously near.*
