Closing prayer

Laura Lee Leblanc, 60, of Groves, Texas passed away on August 20, 2023, at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Laura was born on April 8, 1963, to Allen Kipper and Adele Vokolek, in Junction City, Kansas. After graduating from Port Neches-Groves High School, she went on to work for the Federal Bureau of Prisons where she retired in 2014.

After retirement, Laura found joy in spending time with her family and her cats. Her cat, Fred, spent many precious years by her side. Laura enjoyed going to the lake, visiting the beach, and attending church service in Hemphill, Texas. She spent nineteen wonderful years with the love of her life and husband, Timothy (TJ) LeBlanc.

She was a devoted and loving mother, cat mother, and grandmother. Her greatest joy in life was being a mother.

She is survived by her husband, TJ LeBlanc of Groves, Texas; her daughter, Whitney Legore and husband, Andrew of Denver, Colorado; her step children, Holly and Logan LeBlanc of Beaumont, Texas; her grandchild, Andre Sorba III of Sacramento, California; her siblings, Marti Smith, of Nederland, Texas; Paula Ballard and husband, Randy, of Deerfield Beach, Florida; Yoshi Kipper and wife, Susan, of Kansas City, Missouri; and Donna Sarmiento and husband, Frank, of San Diego, California; as well as many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Ashley Vrolyk and her parents.
