Benediction

Jerry W. Boudreaux, 76, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, September 12, 2023, at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. He was born July 25, 1947, in Lake Charles, Louisiana, to Grace Marie Landry Boudreaux and Lawrence Oscar Boudreaux. Jerry worked in furniture sales for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Soledad Boudreaux of Beaumont; son, James Boudreaux and his wife, Summer, of Lake Charles; surrogate daughter, Perlita Lovett of Beaumont; sisters, Bernadette LeBleu and her husband, Amos, of Sulphur, Louisiana; Lisa Craddock of Houma, Louisiana; grandchildren, Alexis Newlin and her husband, Connie, of Lake Charles; Gabriel Lovett of Fort Moore, Georgia; Alyssa Lovett of Beaumont; and great-grandchildren, Bella and Major Newlin.

Jerry is preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Conway Boudreaux.

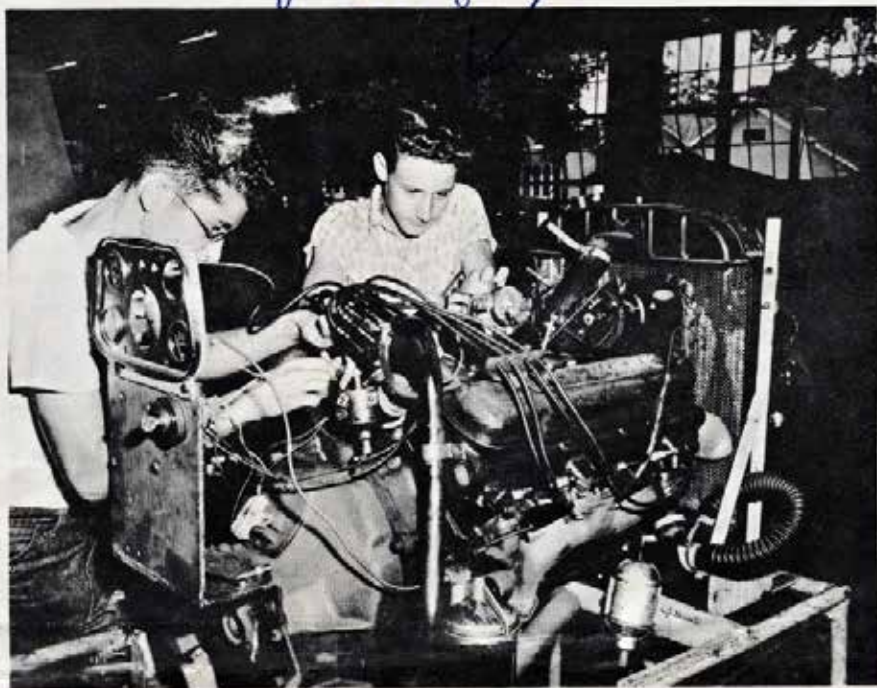

Exploratory Students at Work

Exploratory students from high schools in Calcasieu, Cameron, and Beauregard Parishes have been very busy during the first half of the summer.

These students are learning by doing rather than learning from studying books. Concensus of opinion is that everyone is enjoying the courses, even the instructors.

Below are pictures of students at work in the following Exploratory Courses: Drafting, Electronics, Science, Mechanics, and Metal Work.
