

Sally Jane Boykin

August 4, 1941 - November 24, 2023

Celebrating the Life of Sally Jane Boykin

Sunday, November 3, 2023 2:00 p.m.

Broussard's Chapel

Silsbee, Texas

Reverend Jeff Lowe

Reverend Van Lowe

"Farther Along"

by Alan Jackson

Opening Prayer

"In the Garden"

sang by Joe Dougharty

Obituary

Reverend Jeff Lowe

"Because He Lives"

sang by Joe Dougharty

"Beulah Land"

sang by David Thornhill

Message of Comfort

Reverend Van Lowe

"The Old Rugged Cross"

sang by David Thornhill and Joe Dougharty

Closing Prayer

"How Great Thou Art"

sang by David Thornhill and Joe Dougharty

"Peace in the Valley"

by Elvis Presley

"How Beautiful Heaven Must Be"

by Gaither Vocal Band

Sally Jane Boykin, 82, of Lumberton, died Friday, November 24, 2023. She was born on August 4, 1941, in Blountsville, Alabama, to Irene Little Young and L.H. Young.

Janie moved to Lumberton with her family, went to school in Kountze, and graduated in Silsbee. She attended First Baptist Church of Loeb where she met the love of her life, John Boykin. They later married and had four children. Janie opened a beauty salon and later her and John started Boykin Homes and Land Sales.

She loved traveling in her bus to Branson, it was her favorite place to visit. Janie also loved spending time with her grandchildren, playing cards with her friends, and most of all going to church at Crestwood, she loved the Lord with all her heart.

Survivors include her children, Marilyn Welch and her husband, Jerome; Kevin Boykin and his wife, Renee; and Julie Moore and her husband, Garry, all of Lumberton; grandchildren, Jennifer Ard and Jared Welch, both of Lumberton; Ashlyn Kilpatrick and her husband Stephen, of Silsbee; Natasha Nichols and her husband, Thomas, and Natasha's father, Tommy Blanchard and his wife, Jamie, all of Lumberton; Kyndall Brownsworth and her husband, Dylan, of Valley Mills; Brenner Boykin and his wife, Dusti, of Orangefield; Remington Boykin; Drake Boykin; Kala Hartman and her husband, Josh; and Jace Retherford and his wife, Amanda, all of Lumberton; Cameron Downey of Houston; and Bryton Theis of Dallas; great-grandchildren, Dillon Welch and his wife, Audrey of Lumberton, Dolton Coleman of Port Neches, Draden Ard, Dathan Ard, Braley Ard, Reese Kilpatrick, Jenna Kilpatrick, Rody Hussey, Rye Hussey, Sunni Brownsworth, Kipp Hartman, Kellar Hartman, Jake Retherford, and Avery Retherford; and great-great-grandchildren, Riddick Welch, Rexton Welch, and Aria Welch.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, John J. Boykin, Jr.; daughter, Darla Blanchard; great-granddaughter, Addie Ard; and siblings, Hamilton Young, Herschel Young, Haywood Young, Harry Young, and Nancy Casper.

Pallbearers

Jared Welch

Brenner Boykin

Remington Boykin

Drake Boykin

Dillan Welch

Dalton Coleman

Draden Ard

Dathan Ard

Interment

Boykin Family Cemetery

Lumberton, Texas

Broussards
Established 1889

Please sign Mrs. Boykin's guest book and share your memories at broussards1889.com