Closing Prayer

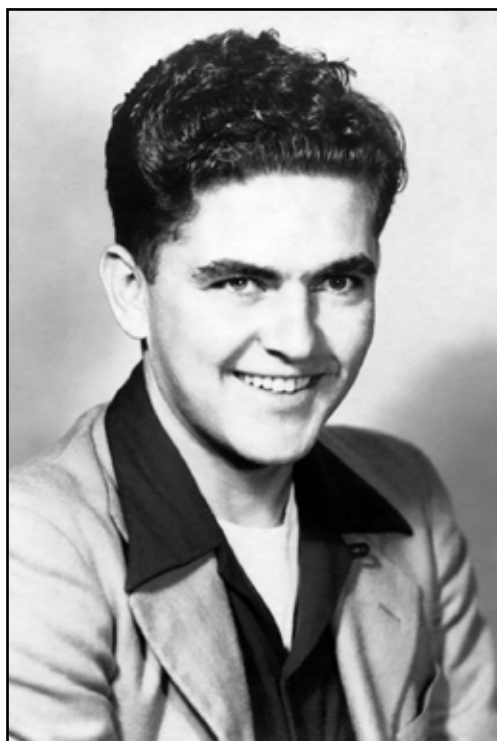

James Louis Noble, 93, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, December 26, 2023, at the Medical Center of Southeast Texas, Port Arthur. He was born on June 29, 1930, to Bertha Guidry Noble and William Ulmer Noble, in Port Arthur.

James retired from the United States Air Force as a Master Sergeant. After leaving the military he later retired from the Texas Highway Department as a surveyor. He sang in a barber shop quartet, was a member of Dowlen Road Church of Christ, and volunteered at the Fire Museum of Texas in Beaumont.

Survivors include his brother, Joe Henry Noble and his wife, Gloria Dean Noble and niece, Cindy Bonin and her husband, Paul, all of Port Acres; and numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and one great-great-nephew.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Norma Faye Metcalf Noble.
