Closing Prayer

Claud “Bud” Stanley, Sr., 81, a lifelong resident of Nederland and Beaumont, died Friday, December 1, 2023. He was born on July 22, 1942, to Lavada Maxine Montgomery Stanley and Claud L. Stanley, in Overton. Bud was a 1960 graduate of Nederland High School and a 1964 graduate of Lamar University.

He owned Triangle Inventory from 1968 and bought Tex Cal Inventory in 1989, merging the two companies until his retirement to the lake in 2009. Bud was a member of the Rotary Club of Beaumont, coached baseball, football, and the Special Olympics. He was an avid boxer in the Golden Gloves while holding several titles. Bud enjoyed running, writing poetry, fishing, and sailing.

Survivors include his children, Gaylon Stanley, Jr. and his wife, Rebekah L. Scotch, MD of Westfield, Massachusetts and children, Chris Stanley of Beaumont and Cameron Stanley of Boston, Massachusetts; Gregory Stanley and Michelle Brister and his children, Lyndi Allien and her husband, Josh and their son, Asher Allien of Kountze and step-sons, Dillon Jordan and Blake McCorvy; Braydan Stanley of Lumberton, Kelli Stanley of Katy and her children, Ross Wooten and his wife, Rina, and their sons, Rory and Riley of Katy and Ashley Wooten of Houston; siblings, Wayne Stanley and his wife, Mary and Jamie Stanley and his wife, Cassandra; several nieces and nephews; and friend and former son-in-law, Ross Wooten, Sr.

He is preceded in death by his siblings, Janet Scudder, Charolett Bourgeois, and Roland Stanley.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Danielle and Joyce for the excellent care and compassion they showed towards Bud.
