Words of Welcome and Prayer

Unison Reading of the 23 Psalm

The LORD is my Sheperd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. He guides me in right paths for his name sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley, I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.

William Cade “Bill” White, 70, died on Monday, December 18, 2023, in Stonewall, Texas. He was born on November 6, 1953, in Beaumont, to Clara Mae Kahla White and James Taylor “Jamie” White, V.

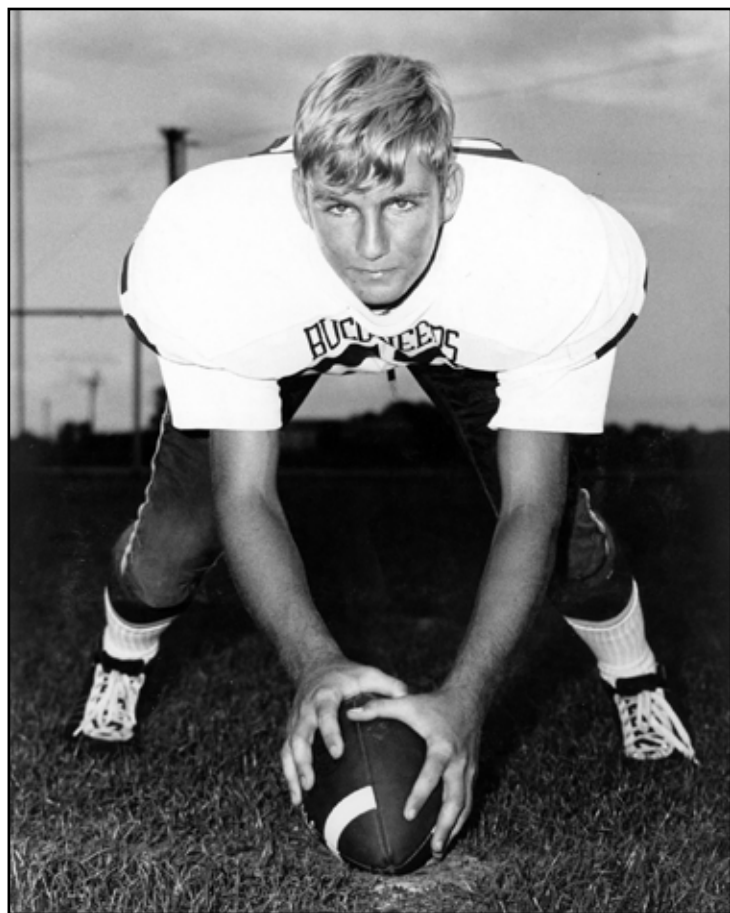

Bill was a member of Grace Methodist Church of Winnie, Texas, and a lifelong resident of Stowell, Texas. Bill owned and operated White Ranch from 1976 until the present. He considered himself blessed to continue the work of his predecessors and continue to build the legacy of White Ranch. He was a supporter of the local community. He was on the board of directors and served on the executive committee of Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association. He was also a lifetime member of the All-Breeds Committee for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Bill had a giving heart and never hesitated to help a friend in need.

Bill’s true passion was ranching. He always referred to himself as the luckiest man alive because he got to do what he loved everyday. On a beautiful day, Bill loved being out on the ranch, but on a rainy day or when it was “too cold,” you could find Bill in his office playing solitaire... or checking the Broussard’s website. He was adamant that he would never retire. And while he lived up to that promise, his new favorite thing to do was sit in his rocking chair and hold his grandkids.

Bill is survived by his beloved wife of forty-six years, Kathrine Choate White; children, Mary Kathrine Moursund and her husband, Albert, of Johnson City and Kyle David White and his wife, Jessica, of Waco; and grandchildren, Emerson Kate White, Dean William Moursund and Eleanor Grace White; sister, Gail White McBride and wife, Fritz Bures, of Round Rock; brother, Steven Kelly White and wife, Sheri, of Stowell; and many much loved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Clara Mae Kahla White; his brother, Kyle David White; his father, James Taylor White, V; sister, Jo Rella White Meaux; and brother, James Taylor White, VI.
